DAY ONE

Katherine to Mainoru Outstation

Start in Katherine (3 hours' drive south from Darwin).

Begin your journey in the township of Katherine, where the outback meets the tropics. For inspiration on what to do in the Katherine region, check out the Kakadu and Katherine itinerary on page 28. Make sure you are well equipped with enough food, water and fuel.

The first leg of your drive will take you south of Katherine towards Mataranka, before turning off onto the Central Arnhem Highway. Travelling just over 250km today on mostly unsealed road, this route is off-the-beaten-path. Take the driving easy and consider breaking your journey with stop offs at either the friendly community of Barunga (home of the Barunga Festival) or Beswick where you can browse local arts and crafts at Djilpin Arts. We suggest you contact well ahead to check opening hours. Take an overnight break at Mainoru Outstation.

Considered one of Australia's last unspoilt areas, Arnhem Land is just waiting for you to discover. The Central Arnhem Road starts 50km south of Katherine and finishes in Nhulunbuy on the Gove Peninsula. This route will take you on an adventure through open savannah woodlands as you cross creeks and spot a variety of wildlife. Please note that when travelling to Arnhem Land you will require entry permits in advance. Contact Tourism East Arnhem via www.eastarnhemland.com.au or call 1800 512 460.

Sunset drinks at Gove Boat Club

DAY SEVEN

Nhulunbuy

Take a day to recoup from your island escape. Get the car fuelled and packed up ready for the road trip back to Katherine.

Once you reach the Stuart Highway, you may choose to either head north towards Katherine and Darwin or south towards Daly Waters and the Red Centre. If you are really loving this untouched landscape, why not head along the Savannah Way? Travel east to explore Limmen National Park and the fabulous Lorella Springs, or west towards the spectacular Victoria River region. Whichever direction you go, the NT won't disappoint.

Food and drink

Mainoru Outstation store (make sure you get extra supplies – fuel, food and water), Gove Boat Club, Walkabout Lodge

Accommodation

Mainoru Outstation, Walkabout Lodge, Gove Boat Club, Gove Peninsula Motel, deluxe (glamping) beach front accommodation on Bremer Island

Tours and activities

Djilpin Arts Centre, nature walks around the Mainoru Outstation, Giddy River, Buffalo Creek, Little Bondi (apply for permits through Dhimurru Aboriginal Corporation). Beach combing, relaxing, turtle spotting, fishing, and Aboriginal cultural tours on Bremer Island.

*You will need a permit to travel into Arnhem Land. www.eastarnhemland.com.au/plan/access-permits

DAY TWO

Mainoru Outstation to Nhulunbuy

The Arnhem Highway continues for another 480km (unsealed) where you will reach the main town of East Arnhem Land, Nhulunbuy (also known as Gove). The road may be unpredictable, so ensure you take your time, be prepared and most of all, appreciate the remoteness of the land you are discovering.

When you arrive in Nhulunbuy, reward yourself with a sunset drink at the Gove Boat Club and take in a famous Top End sunset.

DAY THREE AND FOUR

Nhulunbuy and surrounds

For the next two days, enjoy the remarkable natural surroundings of East Arnhem Land. Stop off at Yirrkala to visit the Buku-Larrnggay Mulka Art Centre (15-minute drive off the Central Arnhem Road). This art centre is worth the short detour; here you can view authentic pieces of art and craft created by local Aboriginal artists.

With Nhulunbuy as your base camp, set out and uncover iconic landscapes at one of the Dhimurru Recreation Areas. Choose from a wide range of settings; from sandy white beaches and rugged coastlines to open forests and shaded inland waterways, all located just one to two hours from Nhulunbuy. Pack a picnic and head out for the perfect day trip exploring Arnhem Land. Visit Dhimurru Aboriginal Corporation website for more information and to apply for permits.

DAY FIVE AND SIX

Bremer Island

Leave the car for a couple of days in Nhulunbuy and escape to an island. Make your way to Bremer Island via a leisurely one-hour boat ride, or a 10-minute charter flight. Arrive at Banubanu Wilderness Retreat on Bremer Island, an eco-escape paradise in the Northern Territory. Take this opportunity to relax, recharge your batteries and live the island lifestyle for a few days. Take part in guided walks, spearfishing, turtle watching or just chill out on the pristine white beach.

Optional add-on

Bremer Island to Nhulunbuy

With so much to see and do why not stay for an extra day and have a blue water fishing experience with one of the charters available. If fishing isn't your thing then charter a scenic flight to witness this amazing part of the world from the sky.
