DAY ONE AND TWO
Mt Dare to Alice Springs
Starting from the SA/NT border up to Timber Creek, the Binns Track was created to allow tourists to explore regions of the NT that were bursting with colours, native wildlife and mighty rock formations.
Set off on the Old Andado Track to Alice Springs. Flanking the western fringe of the Simpson Desert, the track passes sand ridges 5-8m high and meanders through the Finke River flood-out. Enjoy a picnic lunch at Molly Clark’s Old Andado Homestead and unwind in its old-world charm. Take a night or two to enjoy Alice Springs.

DAY THREE AND FOUR
Alice Springs to Gemtree
Continue on to Ruby Gap Nature Park (4WD access only) and keep a lookout for native birds and wildlife along the river bed. If you wish to stay the night, set up your campsite along the river bed. Follow the Pinnacles Track to Gemtree on the Plenty Highway, through the breathtaking scenery of the rugged Harts Ranges. Camp overnight at a powered or unpowered caravan and camping site, or in a cabin. Try your luck fossicking for semi-precious stones such as zircons and red garnets.

Food and drink
There is a large selection of restaurants and cafes to choose from in Alice Springs.

Accommodation
There is a variety of accommodation options in and around Alice Springs to suit all types of travellers.

Tours and activities
- Hot air ballooning, camel ride, Alice Springs Desert Park, Gemtree Tours

---

DAY FIVE AND SIX

Gemtree to Tennant Creek
Continue on to Iytwelepenty/Davenport Ranges National Park.
Embrace the serenity or jump in and cool down in the water. Travelling from the Ranges to Tennant Creek, take a short detour to Karlu Karlu which is home to the massive granite boulders and a must do on your Binns Track itinerary. Walk amongst these ancient boulders that stand up to 6m high. Best to visit at sunrise or sunset when they glow red and change colour. Be sure to bring your camera for this truly beautiful sight.

DAY SEVEN AND EIGHT

Tennant Creek to Dunmarra
Stopover in Tennant Creek to explore its many fascinating historical attractions such as the Battery Hill Mining Centre, the Telegraph Station and Lake Mary Ann. Continue north driving past expansive cattle stations and limestone landscapes. Soak up the history of the Frews Ponds Overland Telegraph Line Memorial Reserve. Created as a tribute to Sir Charles Todd, this heritage attraction pays homage to the building of the Overland Telegraph Station.

Food and drink
- Dunmarra Wayside Inn, Memorial Club, Timber Creek hotel

Accommodation
- Tennant Creek Caravan Park, Dunmarra Wayside Inn, Timber Creek

Tours and activities
- Walk to view the 52 original Oppenhiemer poles from the telegraph line, Nyinkka Nyunyu Art and Culture Centre

---

DAY NINE AND TEN

Dunmarra to Timber Creek
You’ll drive along an unsealed road passing through Bullita Homestead (also a great place to set up camp). Explore the houses and original timber stockyards of the region’s pioneers. Continuing along the track, you’ll pass interesting rock formations along Limestone Creek and then arrive at your final destination, Timber Creek. Here you can catch a glimpse of the early life in the NT at the Police Station Precinct.

Optional add-on

West MacDonnell Ranges
Spend a few extra days and check out the gorges, waterholes and world-class hiking trails in the West MacDonnell Ranges west of Alice Springs.
