

Invenergy in Illinois

Invenergy has completed development on 21 energy projects in Illinois and is pursuing additional opportunities in the state.

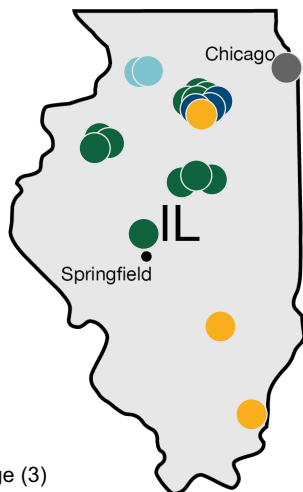

Did You Know:

Invenergy has been delivering on the state's clean energy goals since its first wind project became operational in 2008.

Invenergy-Developed Projects in Illinois

Spanning 8 counties

- Invenergy-developed Wind (12)
- Invenergy-developed Solar (3)
- Invenergy-developed Storage (3)
- Invenergy-developed Natural Gas (2)

Invenergy's 100th project, Southern Oak Solar Energy Center, located in Mitchell County, Georgia.

Energy Innovation. Trusted Execution.

Invenergy is North America's largest privately held developer, owner, and operator of innovative, reliable power infrastructure. Backed by 25 years of trusted execution and operational excellence, Invenergy's end-to-end expertise provides customers with smart, scalable energy solutions across natural gas, solar, land-based wind, energy storage, transmission, and domestic manufacturing. Headquartered in Chicago, Invenergy and its affiliates have successfully developed over 220 projects totaling more than 38 gigawatts and reliably operate over 25 gigawatts of large-scale power infrastructure projects across four continents.

State Highlights

Invenergy-developed projects in Illinois: 21 in operation

Generation capacity totaling more than 3,100 megawatts, which is enough electricity to power over 894,000 American homes

49 full-time operations and maintenance staff and 650+ employees at Chicago headquarters

More than $74.9 million invested annually in local taxes, land costs and lease payments, and project-generated wages and benefits

Annual donations to local education, emergency & veteran services, and environmental stewardship

Invenergy Services

Operating and maintaining energy centers with an owner's mindset

14 Invenergy operated sites totaling more than 2,100 megawatts where we provide management and O&M