

Invenergy in Canada

Since 2005, Invenergy has commissioned over 1 gigawatt of power projects in Ontario and Quebec. These projects include wind, solar and natural gas facilities, and have generated significant financial investments in the local communities where they are located.

Project Locations

Regional Highlights

1,423 megawatts of electricity generation capacity, enough to power more than 326,000 Canadian homes

10 commissioned projects including 7 wind projects, 2 solar projects & 1 natural gas facility

Significant Canadian investment through a long-standing partnership with Quebec's pension fund, CDPQ

Committed to generating economic benefit for host communities and experienced in forming partnerships with local communities and First Nations

Committed to advancing projects while minimizing impacts to the environment and ensuring responsible development and operations

Actively pursuing development in 8 provinces

Invenergy's Le Plateau Wind Energy Centre located in the Gaspé region, Quebec.

A Proven Track Record in Energy Development

Invenergy is North America's largest privately held developer, owner, and operator of clean energy solutions. With its Canadian headquarters located in Toronto, Invenergy invests over $680 million annually in the home communities where its projects are located.

Invenergy has successfully developed more than 210 projects, including solar, wind, transmission infrastructure, natural gas power generation and advanced energy storage projects.