We Do What's Right

In 1977, Primerica's founders witnessed their loved ones left behind, financially, by the financial services industry. Middle-income families in their neighborhoods and communities were being sold the wrong products by people they trusted – or even abandoned in favor of higher-income clients – because they didn't know enough about basic financial principles. Primerica offers HOW MONEY WORKS™ financial literacy services to help teach people the basics of personal finance because we believe a solid foundation is key.

What our founders saw sparked in them a powerful drive to effect change. And that drive became a movement, a passion, a purpose, and a commitment to do what's right 100% of the time.

The Personal Touch

At Primerica, we believe in providing a great client experience in every interaction. Your Primerica Representative will earn your trust – and your business – starting with our complimentary Financial Needs Analysis (FNA). The FNA allows us to take a comprehensive snapshot of your current financial health and identifies personalized solutions to help you reach your goals at every stage of life.
