    - RBG will provide complimentary admission into the EVENT for the entire MIAMI party, defined at thirty-five (35). The entire MIAMI party is defined as: coaches, players, support staff, administrators, boosters and other team guests.
    - MIAMI’s uniformed cheerleaders, dance team, and mascot will be admitted at no charge.

Variances:

- 2026 Game: MIAMI will receive fifty (50) complimentary tickets
- 2027 Game: MIAMI will receive one hundred (100) complimentary tickets

2. All radio and television rights and income related to the EVENT are owned by RBG. All other rights, except as expressly provided in this agreement, including, but not limited to, ticketing, sponsorship, signage, promotions, marketing, television, radio, print, internet, programs, and all other media and advertising are retained by RBG and RBG shall have the sole right to the negotiation, implementation, production, and exploitation of these rights and to all revenues arising from such rights. RBG can assign these rights to another entity at its discretion.

3. MIAMI grants to RBG a limited, non-exclusive license to use MIAMI's name, nicknames, mascot name and image, logo, graphics, and all recognizable trademarks or references to MIAMI (collectively, "Marks") solely for the purposes of promoting the EVENT. MIAMI's Marks may not be used by RBG in a manner that implies sponsorship and/or endorsement by MIAMI of any product or service. During the term of this Agreement, if RBG needs or desire to use, copy, distribute, display, and perform any of Customer's marks in any media or format in connections with the Event or its obligations under this Agreement, MIAMI must review and approve in writing each intended use in advance. MIAMI will grant permission on a case-by-case basis. If approved, RBG must abide by MIAMI's brand and licensing guidelines.

4. Each party agrees to obtain/maintain at its own expense insurance in accordance with commercially reasonable standards. MIAMI will obtain insurance that will cover all participants and staff during the EVENT. Neither party to this agreement shall be responsible for personal injury or loss, except that resulting from its own negligence and/or willful misconduct.

5. The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that MIAMI is an instrumentality of the State of Ohio, subject to the Ohio Constitution and other applicable laws, including, without limitation, the Ohio Court of Claims Act (Ohio R.C. Chapter 2743) and Ohio R.C. 9.27. Under applicable Ohio law, MIAMI is liable for actual damages resulting from contractual breaches. If the EVENTs are terminated for convenience, the parties acknowledge that the non-cancelling party could incur actual damages, and that pursuing such damages may lead to net collections that are lower than the actual damages and may also generate ill-will. Therefore, unless cancellation is justified under the terms of this Agreement or applicable law, or agreed upon mutually, the parties are obliged to initially resolve any cancellation disputes through negotiation involving Senior Officials from each party before seeking legal recourse under applicable law. As used herein, "Senior Officials" are defined as each party's respective athletic directors or other individuals authorized to sign contracts on behalf of their respective organizations. Senior Officials must undertake Good Faith Efforts to resolve disputes under this Section 5 within ninety (90) business days of providing notice of the dispute in compliance with the notice requirements of this Agreement, with such notice detailing the specific issues at stake. As used in this Section 5, the term "Good Faith Efforts" means engaging in at least one (1) face-to-face or virtual meeting that includes Senior Officials from each party. If the dispute remains unresolved after the ninety (90) day period, then the party in breach will pay the lesser amount between $200,000 or the actual, documented damages as prescribed by applicable Ohio law; provided, however, that for damages incurred by MIAMI, the parties may need to seek the permission of the Ohio Attorney General and/or the Ohio Court of Claims. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the non-breaching party is obligated to make reasonable efforts to mitigate their damages.

6. For the sake of clarity, if a party in breach is required to pay the damages set forth in Section 5 above, then the damages shall be paid as follows: (i) if MIAMI is in breach, then $100,000 will be paid to RBG and $100,00 will be paid to HPU; and (ii) if HPU breaches its agreement for the EVENT, then $100,000 will be paid to RBG and $100,000 will be paid to MIAMI. If HPU exercises its right to buy out the game scheduled for November 12, 2027, then MIAMI shall be fully released from any and all liability, financial penalties, or obligations to HPU and RBG arising from the cancellation of said game.

7. Any part of this Agreement that is contrary to any federal, state, or local law shall not be applicable and shall not invalidate any other part of this Agreement.

8. Force Majeure. In the event that performance of the EVENT is prevented because of an Act of God or other force majeure event, including, but not limited to, accident, fire, explosion, hurricane, flood, terrorism, blackout, strike, riot or civil commotion, war, pandemic, order or action of the NCAA or any court or governmental authority or other unforeseeable occurrence ("Event of Force Majeure"), then, this Agreement shall terminate and the parties shall be relieved of all obligations and liability to the other. In addition, should an Event of Force Majeure occur which would have a material adverse impact on RBG holding the EVENT, RBG may cancel the EVENT, without liability.

9. Morals. Either party (the "Terminating Party") may, at its option, terminate or suspend this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the other party ("Offending Party"), if at any time prior to the event(s): (a) the Offending Party commits any criminal act or other act involving moral turpitude, drugs, or felonious activities; (b) the Offending Party commits any act or becomes involved in any situation or occurrence which brings the Offending Party into public disrepute, contempt, scandal, or ridicule, or which shocks or offends the community or any group or class thereof, or which reflects unfavorably upon the Terminating Party or reduces the commercial value of the Terminating Party's association with the Offending Party; or (c) information becomes public about how the Offending Party has so conducted itself as in (a) or (b) in the past; or (d) the Offending Party takes any action (other than legal action arising out of this Agreement) or makes or authorizes statements in derogation of the Terminating Party and such actions or statements become public during the term of this Agreement. Any of the acts described above will be deemed a material breach of the Agreement. The Terminating Party will not be liable for any fees due to the Offending Party after the termination date or until after the suspension has ended (as the case may be). As used in this Section 9, the term Offending Party includes all senior leadership of the Offending Party and all athletics staff of the Offending Party.

10. This Agreement, and all related documents, including all exhibits and attachments to any of the foregoing documents, and all disputes and other matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, whether sounding in contract, tort, statute, or otherwise, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Ohio, without giving effect to any jurisdiction's conflict of laws provisions.

By signing the below, RBG and MIAMI agree to the above terms, This Letter of Intent will be a binding agreement between MIAMI and RBG. Only mutually agreed upon changes made in writing will be accepted once this agreement has been signed by both parties. This agreement shall not be altered, waived, modified, or amended except in writing signed by the parties hereto.
