

On-site vaccination clinics

Occupational health
on-site services

Hosting an on-site vaccination clinic is a proactive and effective way to protect your employees and keep them healthy, productive and well, all year round.

Service highlights:

- Conveniently receive vaccines at the workplace.
- Reduction in time off due to illness with improved team member health and wellness.
- Vaccines can be billed to the employer or to the employee's medical insurance.
- Flu and/or COVID-19 vaccines are available.
- To ensure effective resource allocation, we require that a minimum of 15 vaccines be administered during the clinic. (If this minimum is not met, an on-site fee of $75.00 per hour will be charged.)

Corewell Health advantage:

- Pricing (no base fee for coming on-site)
- Flexible scheduling to accommodate various shifts
- Registered nurses administer vaccines
- Ability to bundle vaccine clinic with additional on-site services

Questions:

- How many vaccines are needed?
- Are any high dose vaccines needed for individuals 65 years and older?
- Where will the clinic be held?
- Do you have a specific date and time in mind?
