SHOPPING, FOOD & DRINK AROUND US

SHOPPING

Oxford Street

Oxford Street is the world's biggest high street, with 1.5 miles of shopping. You will find over 90 flagship stores, selling everything from high-street fashion to tech and homeware. Oxford Street is home to the iconic department store Selfridges, founded in 1906, along with many other quintessential British stores such as Marks & Spencer and John Lewis. You can grab a bite to eat between shopping in the beautiful St Christopher's Place, the perfect place to escape the busy crowds. Oxford Street is well worth a visit this time of year, to view the spectacular Christmas lights.

How to get there: Oxford Street is approximately 12 minutes away from Park Plaza via the Tube. Take the Bakerloo Line from Waterloo Station to Oxford Circus Underground Station.

Regent Street

Running North of Oxford Street you will find Regent Street, home to world-class flagship stores including Burberry, Coach and Kate Spade, and Britain's most famous toy store, Hamleys. Regent Street is also home to Liberty London, a stunning department store famous for its beautiful prints, built in a mock Tudor style, using ship timber from old battleships.

How to get there: Regent Street is approximately 15 minutes away from Park Plaza via the Tube. Take the Bakerloo Line from Waterloo Station to Oxford Circus Underground Station.

FOOD & DRINK

Choose from four on-site restaurants and bars, including the award-winning Brasserie Joël and the popular Ichi Sushi & Sashimi Bar. For drinks, light bites and live music, visit the inviting Primo Bar. You can also start your morning or re-energise in the afternoon with expertly crafted Italian coffee from illy Caffè. And for those wanting to stay in the comfort of their room, we offer 24-hour in-room dining. You can also visit the 1WB Lounge & Patisserie, a great place for afternoon tea and tasty tapas.

If you fancy venturing out, then Hannah Japanese Restaurant is only a 2-minute walk from the hotel (100 metres) or why not try Mamuska! Polish Kitchen and Bar, which is only a 3-minute walk (150 metres).
