REPORT OVERVIEW:

Top New Attacks & Threats

This year's Top New Attacks & Threats Report will once again dig deep into the emerging threats discussed during the annual SANS keynote panel discussion at the RSA® Conference 2024.

In this report, Lee will discuss attacker trends and mitigation strategies and provide suggestions on how organizations can better position themselves to get ahead of these attacks.

In this report, we will touch on topics including:

- Briefing of the most dangerous new attack techniques in use today and in the near future
- Actionable advice on the critical skills, processes, and controls needed to protect enterprises from these advanced attacks
