

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BERLITZ AUSTRIA GMBH

All expressions relating to personal data refer equally to men and women.

1. Validity of standard terms and conditions

1.1. The following general terms and conditions ("GTC") of Berlitz Austria GmbH, Graben 13, 1010 Wien, Austria (hereinafter "Berlitz"), shall apply as a binding basis for all contractual relationships between Berlitz and the consumers and entrepreneurs who make use of products and services offered by Berlitz (hereinafter also referred to jointly as "users" or "customers"). When a contract is concluded via the Internet services of Berlitz at www.berlitz.at, these terms and conditions are accepted by the user, particularly when the corresponding buttons are clicked. A "consumer" is defined as any natural person who enters into a legal transaction for a purpose that does not correspond with their independent professional work. An "entrepreneur" is defined as any natural person, legal person or business partnership who or which in entering into a legal transaction does so in exercise of his or its trade, business or profession. Regulations of these GTC which are expressly designated as applying to entrepreneurs shall not apply to consumers.

1.2. Certain services and/or products offered by Berlitz can be subject to separate contractual and/or registration conditions as a result of which the regulations of these GTC are supplemented. These are referred to separately as applicable in connection with a given service or product. Such separate, special conditions which vary from these GTC shall take precedence over the regulations of these GTC.

1.3. The contract partner is Berlitz Austria GmbH, FN 92298 h unless another contract partner is expressly designated in special offers.

1.4. The contract language is German

1.5. Conditions of purchase and other terms and conditions of commercial customers shall only apply if and insofar as their validity has been explicitly recognized by Berlitz in writing.

1.6. These terms and conditions are available in different languages. In the event of any inconsistencies between the German version of the terms & conditions and any of the official translations, the German version has priority.

2. General contractual basis

2.1. A customer concluding a contract with Berlitz for a participant in the capacity of legal guardian acknowledges and agrees that any contractual provisions shall apply correspondingly for the participant. In particular, the customer agrees that Berlitz's supervisory duties apply only between the beginning and end of the provision of services. The legal guardian is, therefore, responsible for taking and collecting the participants to and from the place of fulfillment punctually. Berlitz is not liable for any damages resulting from the failure to perform these obligations by the legal guardians.

Express reference is made to Berlitz's right of exclusion in case of self-endangerment, damage to others or property, or disturbing behavior; the legal guardian is obliged to be reachable at any time during the provision of services and to always be prepared to collect their charges if required.

2.2. The Berlitz webshop at www.berlitz.at is aimed exclusively at users residing or domiciled in Austria. Berlitz saves the order and the order data entered. Customers can access the order and terms & conditions via the confirmation email they receive. The customer also has the option to print both the order and the terms & conditions before sending the order to Berlitz.

2.3. Furthermore, beyond the online order option via www.berlitz.at, a customer can also conclude a Berlitz instruction contract by signing one in a Berlitz center or sending the signed contract to a Berlitz center by mail, fax or email, whereby this contract is provided by Berlitz and likewise provides for exclusive application of these GTC. Written instruction contracts state and describe the course or service being booked.

2.4. Times and appointments stated by Berlitz are agreed subject to availability of appropriate instructors. If an instructor is unable to keep an appointment, Berlitz shall try to find a substitute. Customers do not have the right to be taught by a particular instructor. If lessons or programs are missed, Berlitz shall offer substitute lessons and programs accordingly. Berlitz agrees that if this is not possible in a particular case, Berlitz shall notify the customer at once and upon completion of the program reimburse the customer for any and all lessons that have been paid for but not completed. A change of instructor can be part of the Berlitz method and does not entitle the customer to withdraw from the contract or cancel it.

2.5. Berlitz commits itself to conducting a thorough needs analysis and providing a goal-oriented training plan, but is not liable for the non-achievement of specific learning and training goals, as this depends especially on the appropriate participation of the customer or participant as well as on his/her personal learning abilities which are outside of Berlitz's sphere of influence. Berlitz is not liable if the customer fails to achieve a particular level of learning and educational success. The statements by Berlitz about the lessons needed to achieve a particular instructional objective are based on many years of experience and can differ from what is actually required in individual cases.

3. Consumer withdrawal rights for distance selling contracts and for contracts concluded outside of business premises

Information on right of withdrawal

Right of withdrawal

You are entitled to withdraw from this contract within 14 days without stating any reason. The withdrawal period is 14 days from the date the contract was signed.

To exercise your right of withdrawal, you must inform us (Berlitz Austria GmbH, Graben 13, 1010 Wien, Tel: 01/27 28 340 - 455, Fax: 01/27 28 4004, E-Mail: shop-ruecktritt@berlitz.at) of your decision to withdraw from this contract in a clearly-worded declaration (e.g. by letter, fax or email). You also have the option of electronically filling in and submitting the model withdrawal form or any other clearly-worded declaration on our website, www.berlitz.at. If you use this option, we will immediately send you confirmation (e.g. by email) of receipt of your declaration of withdrawal.

To meet the withdrawal deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right of withdrawal before the withdrawal period has expired.

Effects of withdrawal

If you withdraw from this contract, we shall reimburse to you all payments received from you, including the costs of delivery, without undue delay and in any event not later than 14 days from the day on which we are informed about your decision to withdraw from this contract. We shall carry out such reimbursement using the same means of payment as that used by you for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of such reimbursement. If you ask for the performance of services to begin during the withdrawal period, you shall pay us an amount which is in proportion to the services provided up to the point when you communicated to us your withdrawal from this contract, measured against the full scope of the contract.

The right of withdrawal applies only to consumers and not to entrepreneurs. Moreover, this right of withdrawal applies to consumers only in the context of contracts concluded outside of business premises and so-called distance contracts, i.e. contracts which are negotiated and concluded between the entrepreneur or someone acting in his/her name or on his/her instructions and the consumer exclusively using means of distance communication, unless the contract is not concluded in the context of an organized distance sales or service-provision scheme. Means of distance communication are all means of communication which can be used to initiate or conclude a contract without the simultaneous physical presence of the contracting parties, including but not limited to: letters, catalogs, telephone calls, faxes, emails, mobile text messages (SMS), radio and television.

5. Liability

5.1. Berlitz shall only be liable for compensation for damages in cases of willful intent or gross negligence; however, Berlitz is also liable for negligent breach of essential contractual duties (cardinal duties), i.e. those duties for which a breach would endanger achievement of the purpose of the contract and with which the other party to the contract can normally rely upon being complied. However, in the case of a negligent breach of cardinal duties, Berlitz shall only be liable for foreseeable damages which are typical for this type of contract.

5.2. The above exclusions of liability shall not apply in case of loss of human life, bodily injury or damage to health. The provision of the Austrian Product Liability Act shall remain unaffected by this clause. Exclusion or limitation of the liability of Berlitz shall also apply to the personal liability of its legal representatives, employees and other agents.

6. Advertising

Customer data is stored when the contract is concluded in particular for the purpose of contract execution and is saved for the period of time prescribed by statutory regulations. Attention is drawn to the privacy statement of the web shop. With the exception of any compulsory transmission required by law, data is transferred only to a credit card company or the shipping company in the case of materials that are delivered by post. Berlitz uses and processes the personal data of each customer for its own promotional purposes by sending the customer information about goods or services which are similar to those already ordered or booked by the customer. The customer may revoke permission to this use of his or her data at any time by sending an email with subject line "Datenschutz" unsubscribe@berlitz.at. The customer's data shall then be deleted.

7. Technical prerequisites to take part in tuition via "Berlitz Virtual Classroom"

The customer is personally responsible for fulfilling the technical requirements with respect to hardware and software as well as any other technical equipment required for participating in virtual forms of training at his or her own expense. Berlitz provides only information on the necessary technical requirements in good time. Lessons that cannot be taken as a result of technical defects on the part of the customer must be paid without exception.

8. Exclusion in case of disruptive behavior

Berlitz reserves the right to exclude customers / participants from the lesson and also from the remaining course program if they disrupt the lesson in such a way that contract compliant training for other customers / participants becomes impossible. In this case, tuition fees paid for unused lessons will be refunded by Berlitz.

9. Final provisions

The law of the Federal Republic of Austria shall apply to the exclusion of the UN convention on the International Sale of Goods (CISG). The area of jurisdiction is Berlitz's headquarters, i.e. Vienna, unless another court is legally obliged to take responsibility. All amendments and additions to the contract must be in writing. A cancellation thereof also requires the written form. Should one of the above provisions be or become ineffective, the validity of the remaining provisions is not affected.

10. Special conditions for face-to-face tuition and the Berlitz Virtual Classroom

10.1. A lesson has a duration of 40 minutes. Each lesson is followed by a five minute break. The customer agrees that an educational specialist employed by Berlitz may visit a lesson for the purposes of quality control. Once the contractually agreed contract period expires, Berlitz is exempted of its contractual obligations. If a customer continues to take lessons beyond the agreed lesson duration, this is considered as an extension of the contract payable in accordance with the currently valid contractual conditions.

For cancellations up to 14 days before the seminar starts, a cancellation fee corresponding to 50% of the contract amount is due. For later cancellations, the entire fee is charged. When placing an order, the customer states the names of the participants and assures Berlitz that these persons are aware of these GTC and shall adhere to them. The customer also expressly agrees to protect all access data and passwords in the customer area in such a way that unauthorized use of Berlitz services by third parties is impossible. Berlitz does not grant its customers reimbursement for any licenses that are rarely used or not used at all.

14.3. Duration of the training, license and online audit

Once a contract has been signed or a purchase has been made in the online shop and payment has been made, the customer receives an e-learning/ blended learning license which shall be valid only for the duration of the course booked in the relevant contract. In the case of private instruction via telephone, the lessons must be taken by the latest 31st December of the following year after the license was purchased. Berlitz and Berlitz customers shall strive to ensure that the courses take place in a time period which corresponds to the pedagogical recommendation made by Berlitz.

14.4. Changes to the contract, reorganization of the course

Reorganization of telephone courses (change of course contents, of language or other similar changes) or the assignment of course units to another course participant is possible at any time at the customer's request. Such a change is charged to the customer for the equivalent value of two telephone lessons. A license can only be transferred to another participant within 30 days of the original participant being issued with the license. This is provided that the original participant has not yet completed the online audit or used the license

14.5. Responsibility for technical prerequisites

Every participant is responsible for having the use of a computer and telephone connection that are in good working order and for keeping them properly serviced. Each participant shall bear the cost for the Internet connection needed to access Berlitz services. 14.6. Terms of payment

The price of telephone courses that have been booked through the NetPlanning organizational platform covers the costs of telephone calls to land line connections in the countries listed at http://www.berlitz.de/upload/pdfs/countries_telephone.pdf. Skype can be used free of charge for all other countries. The customer shall be invoiced for any additional costs arising for courses in other regions or countries. These additional costs shall be calculated in accordance with the rates charged by the relevant telephone provider used by Berlitz and shall be stated on the Berlitz cost estimates and invoices. Interim changes in these rates shall be passed on to the customer.

In the event of a default in payment, Berlitz can suspend continuation of all ongoing orders without prejudice to the exercise of any other rights.

14.7. Courses via internet (e-learning and/or blended learning) – system requirements

The costs for the internet connection required to use the online language audit classification test, NetPlanning, courses through the Internet and/or the Online ReTest shall be solely borne by the customer.

The online training courses which Berlitz offers via the internet can require the participant to call up external websites or links which are not under the jurisdiction of Berlitz. Berlitz cannot be held responsible for any financial losses or other damage sustained by the customer or its participants when they leave the didactic context of the Berlitz service platform. In the case of an interrupted connection for more than 48 hours on work days for which Berlitz bears responsibility, the service can be extended at the request of the customer for a corresponding period of time if the customer can prove this interruption occurred.

If the participant wishes to take lessons via telephone, the course instructor shall call the participant using the landline connection specified in the reservation placed in NetPlanning. Under no circumstances may the participant call his or her instructor by telephone. Berlitz does not provide a telephone connection in order for a participant to take lessons via telephone. All customers shall be responsible for ensuring that the telephone systems they use for telephone courses are in good working order. If the customer is unable to participate, then he/she must cancel his/her reservation at least 6 hours before the originally agreed start of the lesson. This cancellation may only be made via the NetPlanning reservation platform. If this cancellation is not made at least 6 hours before the course start, or if a course is aborted after it has begun, then this course unit shall be deemed to have been delivered and shall be charged the customer accordingly. In this case, an email with notification that the course unit has been charged shall be sent to the participant.

16. Special conditions for examinations and certificates
