

The CAT ROAD TRIP Checklist

BEFORE YOU GO

- Acclimate your cat to the car with short, treat-laden rides
- Select a cat carrier, and let your cat become familiar with it
- Plan your route with reservations at cat-friendly hotels
- Get a copy of your cat's medical records from your veterinarian
- Consult your vet about medication if your cat gets carsick or nervous

ON THE ROAD

- Make frequent stops to check on your cat and let them walk outside
- Be sure your cat has access to clean water and food while in the car
- Check your hotel room for hazards (loose wires, spots your cat could hide) before letting them out of the carrier
