What's new?

We've recently welcomed Irene Pellicchia, who has joined our Simmons & Simmons Tax team as Of Counsel.

Who is Irene?

Irene is a lawyer admitted to the Italian Supreme Court and to the Italian Constitutional Court and is a specialist in tax litigation. With longstanding experience in navigating complex tax disputes and a track record of success, Irene brings valuable expertise that will enhance our capabilities and help us deliver even greater results for our clients. We're excited about the fresh perspectives and innovative solutions Irene will contribute to our team. Our commitment to excellence in tax law continues to be our driving motivation, and with talents like Irene on board, we're setting the bar even higher.

What can Irene do for you?

Irene has over 20 years' experience in handling complex pre-litigation and litigation proceedings, with a particular focus on disputes relating to international taxation, abuse of law, corporate and financial taxation. She also deals with domestic and cross-border rulings and advance agreement and ruling requests (APA, MAP, etc.) on a daily basis, as well as with technical advice in criminal matters.

Irene advises a wide range of clients, including investment funds, banks, multinational companies and individuals. She has authored several legal publications on tax litigation and gives speeches at conferences, master's degree and training courses.

Should you need any further information, do reach out to Irene!
