Two Path to Schoolwide Options Available

Find the right Path to Schoolwide training for you:

District AVID Path to Schoolwide

Elementary, middle, or high school districts may contract with AVID Center to provide Path to Schoolwide trainings for educators in their district. Districts customize the training by selecting the focus areas to be offered. Districts may also host other districts as part of their Path to Schoolwide trainings.

Districts who contract Path to Schoolwide trainings take full responsibility for completing the registration and payment process for all registrations associated with the training. If special arrangements are made for guests to attend the training, the hosting district maintains the responsibility of all costs of the training and will need to collect any payment directly from the invited guests.
