

Advancement Via Individual Determination

College, Career, and Life

How Do We Know?

AVID develops intentional readiness by exposing students to rigorous instruction and supporting them in exploring, preparing for, and navigating their chosen postsecondary pathways.

In 2025,

9 out of 10 AVID seniors in Missouri were college- and career-ready.

94% took at least one course of rigor.

97% completed the 4 years of rigorous coursework necessary for college admission.

86% submitted the FAFSA.

90% planned to attend either a 2- or 4-year college.

How Does This Happen?

AVID trains educators in inquiry-based instruction that develops student agency, academic success and critical thinking skills, and the ability to engage and collaborate with others.

Relational Capacity Helps Students and Teachers

AVID-trained educators develop relational capacity among staff and students by ensuring that connections and interactions are built on respect, trust, and authenticity, creating a foundation for positive relationships and a sense of belonging that enhances engagement and productivity in learning environments.

AVID-Trained Teachers Have Higher Rates of Retention

Data from OR and AZ illustrate that schools retain AVID-trained teachers at rates 4 to 9 percentage points higher⁴ than teachers who were not AVID-trained.

AVID Students Have Higher Attendance Rates

Years of data illustrate that AVID students have attendance rates that are 1 to 2 percentage points higher⁵, on average, than schools' overall rates.
