

Role of the school safety patrol captain

As captain, your job is to help the patrol chief.

You may be made captain for the duration of your time on the patrol, or for part of it.

You may also earn the title for doing a great job—kind of like being employee of the month!

The badge on your shoulder belt tells people you hold an important position.

