

A GIFT OF NUMBERS

PRESENTED TO:

Investing can appear mysterious and daunting to outsiders. Books and classes can help open a gateway to the world, and this calculator is a tool to put those learnings to use.

FROM:

It's used by the more than 100,000 thousand people who annually take the Chartered Financial Analyst exam, the designation of choice for those in the investment industry. Use it to pass the test, or for a few quick calculations of present values and loans.
