

Summary of Certain New EB-5 Rules v. Existing EB-5 Rules

Rule Category	Existing Rules	New Rules
1. Minimum Investment in Targeted Employment Area (TEA)	$500,000	$900,000
2. Minimum Investment in non-TEA	$1,000,000	$1,800,000
3. TEA Designation Authority	States make determinations as to TEAs	U.S. Department of Homeland Security will make determinations
4. Priority Date	Regulations do not permit investors to use the priority date of an immigrant petition approved for classification as an investor for a subsequently filed petition of the same classification	EB-5 immigrant petitioner will be allowed to use the priority date of an immigrant petition approved for classification as an investor for a subsequently filed petition for the same classification