Supporting Moms, Empowering Families

The Maternal Infant Health Program supports women and their families during pregnancy and for 18 months after delivery. Our team of nurses and social workers visit new and expecting moms in their homes to help growing families prepare for a healthy start.

Maternal and Infant Health is so judgment-free. I feel heard, understood and seen in this program. My nurse and social worker are amazing.

Eligibility

Available to pregnant women and infants under 18 months who:

- Reside in Montcalm County
- Are on or eligible for Medicaid

“My nurse was the best. She was very kind and helpful. With all I was going through, she was just what I needed.”

Let Our Knowledgeable and Caring Team Help You:

- Learn about prenatal and infant care
- Find community resources for transportation, food, baby supplies and medical care
- Learn about your health needs during pregnancy
- Learn how your baby grows through different stages of development
- Build self-confidence and personal strength
- Receive support for stress and depression
- Receive nutrition and breastfeeding support

“All of the staff are very nice and helpful!!! They help me find resources and provide encouragement and support.”
