

WHAT IS Photosynthesis?

Photosynthesis is a process that plants use to breathe and make food. They use the _____ from the sun and _____ from the soil to make _____, which feeds the plant. During this process, _____ is released into the air.