

Complete Sentences Using Personification

Personification is giving human qualities to nonhuman things. Using this figure of speech can make your writing more creative and interesting.

Example: The dark thunderclouds grumbled overhead.

PART 1: Circle the word that completes the sentence with personification.

1. This morning, the sunlight was so bright that my eyes were _____.
squinting screaming
2. The sailors faced the _____ ocean, confident they would cross it successfully.
angry rough
3. When Jaylen tripped, the ice cream cone in his hands _____ onto the ground.
fell somersaulted
4. The campfire's flame _____ the marshmallow, causing a crispy and satisfying layer to form.
burned licked
5. My knitted wool sweater warmly _____ me every time I wear it.
hugs covers
6. The walking trail _____ me with the sounds of chirping birds.
calmed greeted

PART 2: Write a word that completes the sentence with personification.

7. My old front door _____ every time I open it.
8. The wildflowers _____ in the wind.
9. Her heart _____ softly that everything would be okay.
10. My messy room was _____ to remind me to clean it immediately.