

New School Year, New Me!

Print out this “New school year, new me!” printable for your kids to fill out as a forecast for the year and to capture what they are excited to learn about, who they are friends with, what they want to read, and more! Return to it at the end of the school year and see how things have changed!

Print out the “New school year, new me” printable. We recommend printing in color on card-stock 8.5” x 11” paper.

Cut along the line where the grid background meets the white background.

Fill out each question with a pen or marker.

Display it to get you excited about the new school year!
