

Thanksgiving Table Mats

by LAURA K SAYERS

Simply print out the next page for as many guests as you have coming round, and give them each a pen to write down what they're thankful for in the blank space. Perfect to get some conversation started before dinner!

To make the mats reusable, they could be laminated and written on with whiteboard pens.

You could also trim the white edges of the sheet to get a neater finish.

Why not pair with Laura's thanksgiving place cards to complete the autumnal look? Search for Laura K Sayers on HP Printables.
