

Conflict of interest (COI) register

National Heart Foundation of Australia (NHFA) and Cardiac Society of Australia and New Zealand (CSANZ)

Australian Clinical Guidelines for the management of Atrial Fibrillation working group (WG) 2018

Member	Employment/Current position	Declared interests
John Amerena	Director, Geelong Cardiology Research Unit University Hospital Geelong	Personal, low level pecuniary interest: Advisory Board Member: Boehringer Ingelheim, Bayer, Bristol-Myers Squibb, Pfizer Sponsored lectures; Boehringer Ingelheim, Bayer, Bristol-Myers Squibb, Pfizer Sponsored travel; Boehringer Ingelheim, Bayer and Bristol-Myers Squibb, Pfizer - sponsorship to attend European Society of Cardiology and APHRS
John Attia	Professor of Medicine and Clinical Epidemiology, University of Newcastle	No interests declared
Beata Bajorek	Academic Pharmacist Graduate School of Health, University of Technology Sydney & Department of Pharmacy	Personal, non-pecuniary interests: Professional: Member - Committees of Special Practice (Cardiology, Geriatrics, Medication Safety), Society of Hospital Pharmacists of Australia (SHPA); Assistant Editor, Journal of Pharmacy Practice and Research (SHPA); Member, Stroke Guidelines Working Group, National Stroke Foundation (2009-11, 2016-17) Academic: supervisor of research projects in AF, stroke, anticoagulation Personal, low-level pecuniary interests: Professional: Paid columnist - Retail Pharmacy Gazette (professional development articles on various topics) Honorariums/travel support for presentations and/or expert commentary relating to AF, anticoagulation, adherence to cardiovascular medications (Meditrax, Pharmaceutical Society of Australia, Pharmacy Guild, National Prescribing Service, National Stroke Foundation) Research funding from: NHMRC and National Heart Foundation of Australia (Vanguard Grant; Project Grant; Funding Tender for "Improving adherence in cardiovascular care - A toolkit for health professionals" - Heart Foundation Pharmaceutical Roundtable) Personal, high-level pecuniary interests: Professional: Paid columnist - Retail Pharmacy Gazette (monthly professional development articles on various topics)

Member	Employment/Current position	Declared interests
David Brieger	Head of Coronary Care, Concord Hospital	Personal, low level pecuniary interests: Consultancy for: Boehringer Ingelheim, Novartis, Astra Zeneca, Bayer, Eli Lilly Travel support from: Boehringer Ingelheim Non-personal, low level pecuniary interests: Research funding: Astra Zeneca, Sanofi Aventis
Kim Chan	Staff Specialist Cardiologist Royal Prince Alfred Hospital	Personal, low-level pecuniary interests: Travel support from Abbott, Medtronic
Cia Connell	Clinical Policy Advisor, Heart Foundation	Personal, non-pecuniary interests: Academic: supervisor of research projects in AF (post-operative AF; use of dual antiplatelet therapy in combination with oral anticoagulants following percutaneous coronary intervention) Academic: author of Therapeutic Guidelines Cardiovascular, Version 7 Professional: Member of cardiology leadership committee for Society of Hospital Pharmacists of Australia (SHPA) Committee of Special Practice Personal, low-level pecuniary interests: Money paid to me by Society of Hospital Pharmacists of Australia to give presentations about atrial fibrillation (not related to guideline) (2018) Money paid to me from Pharmaceutical Society of Australia to write an article for the Australian Pharmacist about aspirin use (June 2017)
Caleb Ferguson	Senior Research Fellow Western Sydney University & Western Sydney Local Health District	Non-personal, non-pecuniary interests: Board Director of; Australian Cardiovascular Nursing College Executive Member: Cardiac Society of Australia & New Zealand – Cardiovascular Nursing Council Academic; Nursing co-chair executive writing group – Stroke Foundation (2017) Guidelines for Clinical Management. Non-personal, low-level pecuniary interest: Grant received from the Stroke Foundation – Future Leader Award Non-personal, high-level pecuniary interest: Grant received for research at University of Technology Sydney Personal, low-level pecuniary interests: Honorarium for teaching; Pfizer Payment for manuscript writing and review for Elsevier and Lippincott Williams & Wilkins

Member	Employment/Current position	Declared interests
Ben Freedman	Deputy Director Research Strategy, Heart Research Institute/Charles Perkins Centre, University of Sydney Honorary VMO and Professor of cardiology, Concord Hospital Dept of Cardiology, Concord Clinical School, Faculty of Medicine and health University of Sydney	Personal, low level pecuniary interests:            Consultancy Boards; Bayer, Bristol-Myers Squibb/Pfizer regarding New Oral Anticoagulant. None since Oct 2016            Sponsored lectures; Bristol-Myers Squibb,/Pfizer, Bayer, regarding Atrial Fibrillation screening. None at pharma meetings other than official meetings of professional bodies (ESC, RACGP, HRS) since Oct 2016            Payment for manuscript; Bristol-Myers Squibb/Pfizer article of persistence of New Oral Anticoagulants Non-personal, low-level pecuniary interests:            Research grant for AF screening (investigator-initiated grant to institution for project part funded by Heart Foundation Vanguard and Heart Foundation NSW CVRN grants) Pfizer
Tanya Hall	CEO, Hearts4Hearts	Non-personal, high-level pecuniary interests:            2017 Grants paid to my institution at Hearts4Heart for the running of the organisation and projects for which I am responsible for from Medtronic, Boston Scientific, Biotronik and St Jude            2018 Grants paid to my institution Hearts4Heart for the running of the organisation which I am responsible for from, Boston Scientific, Biotronik and St Jude Non-personal, low-level pecuniary interests:            2017 grant paid to my institution at hearts4heart for projects for which I am responsible for from Bristol-Myers Squibb and Boehringer Ingelheim            2018 Grant paid to my institution at hearts4heart for which I am responsible for from Bristol-Myers Squibb Non-pecuniary Interest:            2017/2018 Member of the Australasian Cardiac Outcomes Registry, Cardiac Devices and Procedures registries
Haris Haqqani	Senior Cardiologist and Electrophysiologist The Prince Charles Hospital	Personal, Low-level pecuniary interests: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Advisory boards for pharmaceutical industry; Boston scientific Consultancy; Boston scientific</li> <li>• Sponsored lectures; Boston scientific, Medtronic, St Jude, Abbott, Astra Zeneca</li> </ul> Non-personal, low-level pecuniary interest:            Grant received; Biosense Webster

Member	Employment/Current position	Declared interests
Jeroen Hendriks	Derek Frewin Lectureship Royal Adelaide Hospital	Personal, non-pecuniary interests: Board Director of the Australasian Cardiovascular Nursing College; Vice-President of the Australian Cardiovascular Health and Rehabilitation Association (SA/NT). Supported by the Derek Frewin Lectureship – University of Adelaide Supported by a Post-Doctoral Fellowship – National Heart Foundation of Australia Non-personal, low level pecuniary interests: The University of Adelaide has received consulting and lecture fees on my behalf from: Medtronic, Pfizer/BMS
Charlotte Hespe	Head, General Practice and Primary Care Research School of Medicine,	Personal, low level pecuniary interests: GP Advisory boards for pharmaceutical industry; Glaxo Smith Kline, Sanofi Board Directorship of Central and Eastern Sydney PHN, RACGP GP Advisory panel ACI, NSW Health Clinical Reference Lead Digital Health Authority Member Post PBS review panel for Ezetimide / Pulmonary Hypertension Member Professional Services Review Panel Non-personal, low level pecuniary interests: Recipient Bupa Health Foundation Health Award Research grants NHMRC, AMGEN, Sanofi
Joe Hung	Honorary Senior Research Fellow, UWA Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research	Personal, low-level pecuniary interests: Travel and accommodation expenses to attend the Cardiovascular Alliance meeting sponsored by Bayer in 2016; travel and accommodation expenses to attend the Cardiovascular forum in 2017 sponsored by Bristol-Myers Squibb and Pfizer; honorarium and travel and accommodation expenses to attend a PBS/MBS Real World Evidence Advisory Board meeting in 2018 sponsored by Bayer Australia Ltd
Jonathan M. Kalman	Director of Cardiac Electrophysiology Royal Melbourne Hospital	Non-personal, low-level pecuniary interests: Advisory boards for pharmaceutical industry; Biosense Webster, Boston Scientific Grant support received from Medtronic, Abbott, Biosense Webster, Boston Scientific Sponsored lectures; Medtronic, Abbott, Biosense Webster Personal, low-level pecuniary interest: Support for meeting expenses; Abbott Practitioner Fellowship of the NHMRC.

Member	Employment/Current position	Declared interests
Prashanthan Sanders	Director, Cardiac Electrophysiology & Pacing, Royal Adelaide Hospital; Director, Centre for Heart Rhythm Disorders, University of Adelaide; Group Leader, Heart Rhythm, South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute	Non-personal, low level pecuniary interests:            Advisory board for pharmaceutical industry; Biosense- Webster, Medtronic, Boston Scientific, Abbott, CathRx            The University of Adelaide has received consulting and lecture fees on my behalf from: Pfizer, Boston Scientific, Biosense Webster, Medtronic and Abbott.            The University of Adelaide has received research funding on my behalf from: Abbott, Medtronic Boston Scientific, Biotronik and LivaNova.            Grants received from National Heart Foundation of Australia and NHMRC            Travel support from: Bayer and Pfizer
John Worthington	Liverpool Health Service, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital	Personal, non-pecuniary interests:            Supervisory Board for the NSW Bureau of Health Information. Director SLHD Stroke Observatory. Member of Australia and New Zealand Association of Neurologists, Stroke Society, Australian Thoracic Society, NSW Stroke Network (Agency of Clinical Information). Member CEC Anticoagulant Working Party and Chartbook Advisory Committee, Advisor Victorian Agency of Health Information VAHI. Grant received NSW Office of Health and Medical Research NTP grant on stroke care, no investigator income. Multiple unpaid talks on anticoagulation. Personal, low-level pecuniary interest:            Paid member of AVANT medical expert committee, with some topics relevant to stroke prevention. Personal, high-level pecuniary interests:            Consultancy for NSW Agency of Clinical Innovation as Clinical-lead on Stroke Clinical Audit Project (SCAP) addressing unwarranted clinical variation in NSW. Completed 2017. South Western Sydney LHD research funding and salary as Director Stroke and Health Services Research Unit in SWS (ended Feb 2017). Non-personal, low-level pecuniary interests:            Past grants from NHMRC, BUPA and UNSW
Tristan Yan	Cardiothoracic surgeon Royal Prince Alfred Hospital	No interests declared
Nicholas Zwar	General Practitioner Dean of Medicine, University of Wollongong	Personal, non-pecuniary interests:            Chair of Editorial Committee for 9th Edition of RACGP Guidelines for Preventive Activities in General Practice            Chair of Content Advisory Group RACGP smoking cessation guidelines;            Member COPD-X Evaluation Committee, Lung Foundation Australia,            Grants received from Heart Foundation of Australia and NHMRC