A16. Communications plan

Module 5 - Spreading the word

A communications plan helps you decide how to talk to different groups in your community, especially those you want to keep informed or engaged throughout your project.

Use the table below to map out your key audiences, what message you want to share, where to share it, and what tasks need to happen.

Target audience	Key message	Platform/tool	Task/timing