

SA CVRN Award for Emerging Leader in Cardiovascular Research

2024 Guidelines and Application Form

Instructions to applicants

Please read the instructions carefully before completing the application form. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Closing Date: 5pm, Monday 20 May 2024

Background

In 2024 we are pleased to offer the inaugural SA CVRN Awards for Cardiovascular Research to recognise and celebrate outstanding contributions to research in cardiovascular diseases, including diabetes, stroke and renal disease.

The SA CVRN Award for Emerging Leader in Cardiovascular Research specifically recognises one early-mid career researcher, up to 10 years post PhD.

Application for this Award is by nomination by a Senior Researcher or Senior Executive in a similar or related field.

Who can be nominated?

Any early to mid-career (up to 10 years post PhD, excluding career disruption) scientist, researcher, clinician or health services specialist in SA who has demonstrated excellence in achievement in cardiovascular research.

Selection criteria

Excellence in achievement in cardiovascular research is demonstrated by the researcher's Track Record.

A strong Track Record could include, but is not limited to:

- Specific research achievements
- Research impact and benefit
- Originality and significance
- Collaboration achievements
- Publications' record
- Grants awarded
- Awards and prizes.

Eligibility criteria

The Emerging Leader Award is open to residents of SA working in research in cardiovascular disciplines, including diabetes, stroke and renal disease.

Note:

- Only individual researchers are eligible (not research teams).
- The Nominee must be a member of the SA Cardiovascular Research Network (SA CVRN). If you are not a member of the SA CVRN, it is free to join.
- Nominees must be no more than 10 years post PhD conferral as at the closing date (excluding career disruption). The Review Committee will consider exceptions based on evidence of equivalent experience and details of career interruptions relative to opportunity.
- Nominees should currently be working in SA and be committed to carrying out their research/work in SA in 2024.
- Nominees must either be permanent residents or citizens of Australia.
- Self-nominations are not eligible.
- The winner is expected to attend the Awards Ceremony, 29 June 2024, unless extenuating circumstances will prevent attendance.

Nomination requirements

Nominators should hold a senior research or executive position and be from a similar or related field to that of the Nominee. Nomination forms should be completed by the Nominator and Nominee.

A completed form should include:

- Nominator's reference and statement endorsing the Nominee;
- An outline by the Nominee of their research; and
- Nominee's brief resume or curriculum vitae (maximum 2 pages) and key publications (maximum 1 page) completed by the Nominee.

Entries with insufficient documentation or documentation in excess of requirements, or those received after the closing date, will not be considered. Submitted material will not be returned.

Selection procedure

The SA CVRN Award Review Committee may include representatives from the relevant CVD research community, both within SA and nationally. The Review Committee will shortlist applicants against the selection criteria, considering the relevant career stage and experience of the Nominees and any career disruptions as documented.

From the shortlist, the Review Committee will reach their decision on the recipients of the award solely on the material submitted by the Nominees and Nominators. The deliberations of the Review Committee will remain confidential. The decisions of the Review Committee in the selection of the Award recipients are final and no further correspondence will be entered into.

Award

The recipient(s) of the SA CVRN Award for Emerging Leader in Cardiovascular Research will receive a framed certificate alongside public and peer recognition at the SA CVRN Awards Ceremony.

The winner will also receive a cash prize of $5,000 paid to their research account; intended to support their research or to attend a conference relevant to their research.

The $5000 cash prize does not support institution on-costs.

Privacy legislation

Individuals, investigators or research institutions associated with SA CVRN Ministerial Awards shall abide by the current NHMRC Guidelines issued pursuant to Section 95 of the Privacy Act 1988. All applications will be treated confidentially and will only be viewed by assessors, review committees, and SA CVRN staff.

Closing date

Applications must be submitted by the Nominator.

Nominations for the Awards must be received by 5pm ACST on Monday 20 May 2024.

Following receipt, each nomination will be thoroughly checked for completion. When all relevant information has been obtained, the nomination will be submitted to the Review Committee for consideration.

When are recipients advised?

Shortlisted applicants will be notified approximately 4 weeks prior to the Awards Ceremony. Shortlisted applicants may be requested to participate in promoting and marketing of the Awards, prior to the Ceremony.

The winner(s) of the Award will be announced at the SA CVRN Awards Ceremony. Following the Ceremony, the recipient(s) will be advised officially in writing of the offer of the award. The name(s) of the successful Award recipient(s) will be published on the SA CVRN, Heart Foundation Website.

The SA CVRN Awards Ceremony will be held on Saturday 29 June 2024.

Are nominators advised?

Nominators are advised of the outcome of their nomination coincident with notification of shortlisted applicants.
