Kari Webber Named to Leadership Omaha 'Class 47'

OMAHA, Neb. (August 1, 2024) – The Greater Omaha Chamber has announced Leadership Omaha Class 47, following a rigorous selection process and continuing a four-decades-plus tradition of cohort-based leadership development. Kari Webber, assistant vice president at Physicians Mutual, is selected to participate in this year's Leadership Omaha class. Webber leads Corporate Communications and Public Relations at Physicians Mutual and serves on the board of directors for Intercultural Senior Center.

"We congratulate Kari on being selected for Leadership Omaha Class 47," said Physicians Mutual President and CEO Rob Reed. "So many of our Omaha leaders have grown and thrived through the tradition of Leadership Omaha by the Omaha Chamber. Physicians Mutual is honored to have one of our own participating this year."

"This is an exciting time for these leaders, and we are proud of our members in Leadership Omaha Class 47, who are preparing to embark on a journey to strengthen our region through effective communication, increased awareness, strong leadership and inspiration, both within themselves and for our city," said Daniela Rojas Florez, Director of Community Leadership Programs, Greater Omaha Chamber.

As in the past, this year's class was selected by a committee of Leadership Omaha alumni and Chamber board members. All honorees demonstrated strong community involvement and a vision for the future of Omaha.

The class will spend the next 10 months focusing on community trusteeship, community awareness and leadership styles, ultimately joining a network of more than 1,700 Leadership Omaha alumni.
