Tara Warren Named to Leadership Omaha 'Class 46'

OMAHA, Neb. (August 1, 2023) – The Greater Omaha Chamber announced the members of Leadership Omaha Class 46, continuing its forty-six-year tradition of cohort-based leadership development. Tara Warren, an assistant vice president at Physicians Mutual, will participate in this year's Leadership Omaha. Tara is a leader of the company's product management team and serves on the board of directors of Junior Achievement of the Midlands and on the board of advisors of Heartland Hope Mission.

"Physicians Mutual is proud to have Tara as a member of this year's Leadership Omaha Class 46," said Physicians Mutual President and CEO Rob Reed. "The Greater Omaha Chamber's investment in raising the caliber of our Omaha leaders through this program benefits our community as a whole and inspires our next generation."

"The members of Class 46 have already shown a profound commitment to the Omaha community. I am excited for them to continue cultivating an awareness of Omaha's resources, challenges, and opportunities and to define their role in transforming the community," said Alexander Cayetano, senior director of leadership development, Greater Omaha Chamber.

As in the past, this year's class was selected by a committee of Leadership Omaha alumni and Chamber board members. All honorees demonstrated strong community involvement and a compelling vision for the future of Omaha.

The class will spend the next 10 months focusing on community trusteeship, community awareness, and leadership styles, ultimately joining a network of more than 1,900 Leadership Omaha alumni.
