Aji George Named as Leadership Omaha Class 45 Participant

OMAHA, Neb. (July 14, 2022) – Physicians Mutual today announced Aji George will participate in Leadership Omaha (LO), one of the nation’s longest-running community leadership programs. Aji is an assistant vice president at Physicians Mutual, overseeing its Document Processing & Imaging. He serves on the board of directors of Outlook Enrichment in Omaha.

“Leadership Omaha is a wonderful program that inspires growth of the participants and benefits our community as a whole,” said Physicians Mutual President and CEO Rob Reed. “Physicians Mutual is proud to have one of our own as a Class 45 participant. Aji will do a tremendous job. He will add the insights and know-how from this experience to continue his leadership within the company and in the community.”

The 10-month program focuses on a curriculum designed to fuel leaders in Greater Omaha who will contribute to our vibrant community. The leaders will participate in monthly seminars that motivate them into action to strengthen and transform the community.

“Every class of leaders brings new skills and perspectives to the table and our community is better for it. I have no doubt Class 45 has what it takes to honor their commitment and make our region a more dynamic place. Let’s get to work!” said Liz Kerrigan, Greater Omaha Chamber’s senior director of leadership development.
