ALL-CONFERENCE TEAMS

SPARTANBURG, S.C. - After sharing the SoCon regular-season title, ETSU and UNCG claimed three of the four individual awards including Player of the Year, Coach of the Year, and Freshman of the Year. UNCG's Yoshiya Okawa earned Player of the Year, and Issah Haruna was tabbed Freshman of the Year. ETSU's Allen Vital was selected as the Coach of the Year. Furman's Aaron Salinas rounded out the individual awards as the Goalkeeper of the Year. The Spartans, picked to finish fifth this season in the preseason poll, went 10-2-4 (3-1-1 SoCon) to garner their third regular season title in the last four years. ETSU was picked first in the poll and won their second consecutive regular season championship.

The league's six coaches also named two all-conference teams and an all-freshman squad. This season's all-conference first and second teams include 11 student athletes, the all-freshman team has 12 student-athletes due to a tie in the voting. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own players or themselves.

Furman led all squads earning 10 selections on the postseason teams, including four players on the all-conference first team. UNCG featured eight total selections, while ETSU, Mercer, and Wofford followed with five selections each. VMI rounded out the squads with one student athlete represented.

Okawa led UNCG offensively this season, contributing a total of 20 points over the course of 15 games. The Tokyo, Japan, native scored eight goals, three of which were game-winning, and added four assists, while starting 12 games for the Spartans. The senior midfielder led the SoCon in points (20) and goals (8) scored this season and was tied for first in game-winning goals (3).

Salinas played over 1200 minutes in goal for the Paladins this season, starting in 14 of 16 games. The Grand Prairie, Texas, product averaged 1.08 goals against this season, with 35 total saves for a save percentage of 70 percent. The sophomore also logged three shutouts this season against Davidson, Presbyterian, and Wofford.

Issah, who is also an all-freshman and All-SoCon second-team selection, recorded nine points on three goals and three assists. The midfielder from Bolgatanga, Ghana, started in 11 of his 15 appearances for the Spartans.

ETSU's Vital was tabbed the league's Coach of the Year. Vital led ETSU to a 5-6-4 overall record and a 3-1-1 conference record in his first season as head coach for the Buccaneers, whose co-regular season championship is their second consecutive title.
