NOTES

• There are two games on the slate this week, both games for The Citadel Bulldogs and both on the road. The Citadel begins the road swing with a neutral contest against Appalachian State in Greer, South Carolina on Thursday, Oct. 1 at 2 p.m. On Saturday, Oct. 3 the Bulldogs play at Belmont Abbey at 4:30 p.m.

• Last week, The Citadel (1-2-1) fell in two close contests against #12 Pittsburgh in Charleston, S.C. The Bulldogs fell 2-1 in overtime on Sept. 24 after maintaining a 1-0 lead until late in regulation and fell 1-0 on Sept. 27. Thursday's meeting with Pittsburgh marked the Bulldogs' fourth meeting with a ranked opponent in program history and first since 2013. The Panthers, ranked for the first time in program history at 12th in the initial US Soccer Coaches Top 15, were the highest ranked opponent the Bulldogs faced since playing at #5 Florida State on Oct. 25, 2005.

• Mercer (1-1-1) defeated Georgia Southern 1-0 in Statesboro, Ga. on Sept. 24 to earn its first win of the season. The Bears' previous two contests had gone to overtime.

• The Citadel and Mercer played to a 1-1 draw on Sept. 17 in Charleston, S.C. It was the first time The Citadel has earned a positive result against Mercer, who entered the match 7-0 against the Bulldogs. The teams will meet in Macon, Georgia, on Oct. 10. Both meetings are considered nonconference.

• Mercer senior Abigail Zoeller, the SoCon active leader in career assists (19), needs just three assists to pass Nancy Fallin (1991-94) and become the program leader in career assists. The midfielder set the single-season record (11) last season.

• Mercer goalkeeper Jordyn Ebert notched a shutout in the win, giving her 15 for her career, three away from sole possession of second in program history and makes her the SoCon active leader in career shutouts. The senior also needs just 38 saves to move in to third place in program history for career saves.

• The Citadel's Logan Dix scored her third goal of the season and 18th of her career in the draw against Mercer on Sept. 17. The senior is now tied for fifth in program history for career goals. Dix also has 42 career points, good enough for sixth in program history and five game-winning goals, second in program history. Dix's three goals this season is good for third nationally.

• The Southern Conference Council of Presidents announced on Aug. 13 that the league would postpone conference competition for all fall sports to the spring due to health and safety concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, with schools able to participate in nonconference play in the fall at their discretion.

• Samford won the 2019 Southern Conference women's soccer championship by downing No. 9 The Citadel, 5-1, in the quarterfinals, No. 4 Mercer, 3-0, in the semifinals and No. 2 Furman, 1-0, in the championship final. Samford also claimed at least a share of the regular-season title for the sixth straight season in 2019.

• ETSU, Furman, UNCG, Samford, Chattanooga, VMI, Western Carolina and Wofford are forgoing fall competition and will wait to compete in the spring.

 NOTE: Due to the impact of the pandemic on fall schedules, only teams competing in the fall were considered for the polls. The number of teams appearing in each ranking is also lower due to the lower number of teams competing. The men's poll consists of a Top Five national ranking and the women's poll features a Top 15. There are no regional rankings.
