Big First Half Propels Appalachian State

BOONE, N.C. – No. 1 Appalachian State (11-1) racked up 356 yards of offense in the first half alone – 179 of them on the ground – to open up an insurmountable 31-0 lead and went on to coast to a 45-28 victory over No. 13 Coastal Carolina (9-3) in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship on Saturday at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Quarterback Armanti Edwards ran for 172 yards, Walter Payton Award finalist Kevin Richardson added 156 on the ground and the duo combined to account for all six Mountaineer touchdowns to lead the Apps to 45 points on 560 yards of total offense, both school playoff records.

For the ninth time in 12 games this season, ASU's defense did not allow a touchdown in the first half. Appalachian limited CCU to just 115 yards before halftime en route to pitching its fifth first-half shutout of the year.

In all, the 560 yards of total offense and 45 points were both all-time bests for the Mountaineers in 23 all-time NCAA Division I Football Championship (formerly Division I-AA) playoff games.

Additionally Edwards' 172 rushing yards were the most ever by an ASU quarterback and the fifth-best mark for any Mountaineer in a playoff game. Richardson's 156 on the ground are tied for the eighth-best rushing performance in ASU playoff history. Defensively, Buck Buchanan Award candidate Marques Murrell registered 1.5 sacks, giving him 8.5 for the season.

Bobcats Topple 8th-Ranked Furman

BOZEMAN, MONT. – Montana State posted a 31-13 victory over Southern Conference power Furman in Bozeman, Mont. Jack Rolovich threw for 272 yards and redshirt freshman Jessie Anderson turned his own blocked punt into a touchdown in the win.

The Bobcat defense dominated the game until the outcome was beyond question. Furman, one of the top rushing teams in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision, gained only 123 total yards through three quarters.

The Bobcat offense capitalized on the big play. On MSU's third play from scrimmage, Rolovich scrambled to the right and found Donell Wheaton for a 51-yard score.

With just under 10 minutes left in the first half, and Furman punting from its own end zone, Anderson crashed through the Paladin punt protection unit and blocked a punt by Trent Hawk. The ball bounded out to the four yard line, where MSU's Brian Williams picked it up and made a move toward the end zone. The ball popped loose, and Anderson, hustling, recovered for a touchdown. MSU led 17-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, Williams forced a fumble and Kory Austin recovered, giving MSU possession on the Furman 25. On first down, Rolovich feathered a ball into Mike Jefferson's hands in the back corner of the end zone for a touchdown.

With the Bobcat offense and special teams turning in big plays in the second quarter, the defense was solid. Furman ran only 12 offensive plays in three possessions in the period, three coming after the team's only second-quarter first down, which came on an MSU penalty.
