Southern Conference News and Notes

Two of a Kind

Davidson's De'Mon Brooks was named the Player of the Year in 2012 by the league's head coaches, while teammate Jake Cohen earned the same award from the league's media.

- It was the first time in SoCon history that two teammates were both named Player of the Year.

Top Terrier

Wofford's Karl Cochran was named the league's Freshman of the Year in 2011-12, becoming the first Terrier to win the award since Ian Chadwick in 1997-98.

Making The Leap

The Southern Conference has had five teams improve their win total by a minimum of nine games over the last four years.

- Georgia Southern won 15 games last year after winning just five in 2011.
- Furman won 22 games in 2011 after posting 13 wins in 2010.
- Wofford went from 16 wins in 2009 to 26 victories in 2010.
- Both College of Charleston and The Citadel made impressive jumps in 2009. The Cougars went from 16 wins in 2008 to 27 the next year. The Citadel had one of the greatest turnarounds in league history, improving from just six wins in 2008 to 20 in 2009.

Divisional Play

The Southern Conference established the North and South divisions in men's basketball prior to the 1994-95 season. Nine of the 12 current members have won at least a share of a division championship over the last 17 seasons. The Citadel, Furman and Samford, which joined the league in 2008, have not won their division.

- Davidson leads the league with 12 division championships, while Chattanooga has won eight.

Making The Grade

In addition to achieving success on the court, SoCon men's basketball teams boast impressive academic credentials. In the latest data released by the NCAA in June, Southern Conference men's basketball teams posted an Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 965, nine points higher than the national average of 956 for Division I men's basketball programs. It was the fourth consecutive year that the SoCon average was higher than the national rate.

- The Southern Conference's APR score of 965 in men's basketball was the fourth-highest among all Division I conferences.
- The NCAA released its Graduation Success Rate scores October 25. Southern Conference men's basketball earned a 72, topping the Division I average of 68.

Schedule Adjustment

The 2012-13 season will mark the final 18-game conference schedule for the SoCon, a format which was adopted by the league at the start of the 2006-07 season. Beginning with the 2013-04 campaign, SoCon teams will play a 16-game conference schedule.

Tournament Seeding

The league's administrators voted to change the seeding process for the men's basketball tournament at last year's spring meetings. Under the new format, in place for the 2013 tournament, only the two division winners will be guaranteed byes in the first round of the conference tournament and the remaining teams will be seeded 3-12. The two additional first-round byes will now go to the two teams with the best conference records. The previous format gave the top two teams in each division a guaranteed bye.

Annual Leaders

Wofford limited its opponents to just 63.2 points per game last season. It marked the sixth consecutive season that a different team led the SoCon in scoring defense.

- College of Charleston's 1999-2000 team had the best scoring defense in league history, holding opponents to just 58.6 points per game.

College of Charleston's Andrew Lawrence led the league in steals last season (1.9 spg). It was the first time a Cougar led the conference in thefts.

Mike Groselle of The Citadel was first in the SoCon with 9.6 rebounds per game, marking the first time a Bulldog has led the league in rebounding.
