No. 2 seed Furman won its second straight SoCon Championship and 13th overall with a 1-0 victory over No. 4 seed ETSU in the title match. The Paladins' Lewis Hawke scored the game-winning goal on a header in the 10th minute and keeper Sven Lissek posted six saves en route to earning tournament Most Outstanding Player honors. Lissek also posted a shutout in Furman's 0-0 draw with Mercer in the semifinals, stopping a penalty kick as the Paladins advanced with the 3-2 decision in PKs.
