This year, Georgia Southern's Sydney Van Curen scored the decisive goal in the seventh round of penalty kicks. The Georgia Southern women's soccer team topped No. 3 seed Furman to win the 2012 Southern Conference Women's Soccer Championship and claim the league's automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. The teams played through regulation and two golden-goal overtimes before the Eagles prevailed 5-4 in penalty kicks. They then went on to face third-seeded Wake Forest, in the NCAA tournament, where they won with a score of 4-0.
