Notes

•Belmont has scored eight of their 11 goals this season in the last three matches. The Bruins have also tallied seven or more shots on goal in the last three games and 10 or more shots in four of its last five contests. They notched their second-consecutive win at E.S. Rose Park with a 4-1 rout of Faulkner on Saturday. The four goals against Faulkner were the most in a game for Belmont since Aug. 27, 2017, when they scored six in win at home over Niagara.

•ETSU goalkeeper Josh Perryman's 270 minute shutout streak ended in the 56th minute against Georgia State, which dating back to the 56th minute of the Marshall game.

• Mercer goalkeeper JR DeRose made six total saves last week as the Bears went 2-0-0 with dramatic wins over USC Upstate and Georgia Southern. The redshirt junior netminder has now made 99 saves in his Mercer career, needing just one more to hit the 100 save mark.

•Wofford has five more home games remaining this season, with all five contests taking place on Tuesday nights. The Terriers have seen large contributions from new members of this year's squad as five of the seven goal scorers this season have been freshmen.

Men's Soccer Players of the Week

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Southern Conference named its men's soccer players of the week Tuesday for games played Sept. 24-30. Mercer forward Trevor Martineau and ETSU defender Joe Pickering were honored as the league's offensive and defensive players of the week, respectively.

Mercer was a perfect 2-0-0 last week, with wins over USC Upstate and Georgia Southern, while ETSU drew with Georgia State in its lone match of the week on Saturday.

Martineau continued his impressive run of form this season, adding seven points on two goals and three assists during the week. The sophomore notched a goal and two assists in the overtime win against USC Upstate on Tuesday. Martineau tied the game in the 85th minute from the penalty spot before assisting on Michael Ille's game-winner in the 108th minute. He closed out the week with a goal and an assist in the 3-2 win over Georgia Southern on Friday. Martineau currently leads the conference with 17 points and seven assists and is second in the league with five goals.

Pickering played a vital role on both ends during Saturday's match against Georgia State. The redshirt junior logged 110 minutes in the back of the defense and scored the game-tying goal in the 90th minute that sent the game into overtime. Pickering found the back of the net with a right-footed volley into the bottom corner, his first goal of the season and fifth of his career.

Both squads return to action on Tuesday, Oct. 1, as Mercer hosts Winthrop and ETSU travels to Appalachian State. Each match is set for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Also nominated for offensive player of the week: Jordan Dozzi (Belmont), Gilbert Miller (ETSU) and Brandon Oddy (Wofford).

Also nominated for defensive player of the week: Nicolo Dini (Belmont), Kareve Richards (Mercer) and Shane Berson (Wofford).
