SOCON RIFLE

The 2016-17 academic year sees the return of rifle to the Southern Conference, which previously sponsored the sport from 1956-85. Full SoCon members The Citadel, VMI and Wofford are joined by associate members UAB, Georgia Southern and North Georgia to form just the second Division I conference to currently sponsor the sport.

The SoCon boasts a rich rifle history, with The Citadel winning a league-best 10 team titles and VMI claiming two in the league's first incarnation. West Virginia's John Writer, the 1965 and 1966 SoCon individual champion, won a gold medal in the 1972 Munich Olympic Games and a silver in 1968 in Mexico City, both in rifle three positions. ETSU became a player on the national scene from the late 1970s to the mid-1980s, winning seven straight SoCon titles and placing third at the inaugural NCAA Championships in 1980. The Bucs finished no worse than fourth at the NCAA tournament each year from 1980-85.
