SoCON PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Fletcher Magee, Jr., G
Wofford

Magee opened his week by matching his career high with 36 points in leading the Terriers to a 63-60 win over Georgia Tech on Dec. 6. The Orlando, Florida, native hit a jumper with just over a minute left in the game to give Wofford its first lead of the second half and then hit the winning 3-pointer with just 1.9 seconds left in the game as the Terriers picked up their first-ever home win over a current ACC school. Magee, who also pulled down four rebounds and had two steals and played all 40 minutes, was 12-for-22 from the floor and 8-for-14 from 3-point range in the contest.

In Saturday's win over Johnson & Wales, Magee scored 22 points on 8-for-10 shooting and corralled four more rebounds in just 15 minutes of work. He was 4-for-5 from 3-point range.

For the week, Magee shot 62.5 percent (20-for-32) from the floor and 63.2 percent (12-for-19) from 3-point range. He was 6-for-6 from the free-throw line to remain perfect on the season, moving to 22-for-22.

CONFERENCE NEWS AND NOTES

• Furman has won three straight games and five of its last six. The Paladins' 101-72 victory over South Carolina State on Saturday marked its first 100-point performance versus an NCAA Division I foe since scoring a 103-98 win over Charleston Southern on Dec. 18, 1993, in Greenville.

• Chattanooga forward Makinde London had a monster game against Marshall on Dec. 5, notching career highs with 25 points and 18 rebounds in the Mocs' 70-66 loss. The 18 boards are the most by a SoCon player this season.

• Senior guard Ria'n Holland returned to the Mercer lineup Saturday after a three-game absence due to an ankle injury. Holland showed no signs of rust, scoring 24 points on 7-for-10 shooting (6-for-8 from 3-point range) in an 82-64 win over Florida A&M. The Bears went 1-2 without Holland in the lineup, including an 83-81, double-overtime loss at Memphis.

• Mercer forward Stephon Jelks flirted with a triple-double against Florida A&M, tallying 12 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists. The double-double was Jelks' second of the season.

• Wofford's Fletcher Magee has scored in double figures in 55 consecutive contests dating back to 2015-16, good for the second-longest active streak in NCAA Division I, according to research by STATS. With a scoring average of 23.8 points per game through his first 10 games, Magee is on pace to post the highest scoring average in the league since Davidson's Stephen Curry scored 28.6 per contest in 2008-09.

• Two of the most accurate 3-point shooters in SoCon history are active in the league this season. Wofford's Magee is second in SoCon annals with a career 3-point percentage of 46.5, while UNCG's Francis Alonso is 10th in league lore at 43.1 percent.

• ETSU freshman Bo Hodges has continued to develop over the first nine games of the year. In the team's first five games, Hodges was 9-of-21 from the field for a 43-percent shooting percentage, but has since gone a remarkable 25-of-29 for an 86-percent shooting percentage over the team's last four games.

• The Bucs (6-3) now have a four-game winning streak after winning back-to-back games at home this past week, including one over the defending Horizon League champion Northern Kentucky. ETSU will have a serious threat to its streak when it travels to No. 10 Xavier for a matchup on Saturday.

• Samford senior Christen Cunningham's starting streak of 110 games came to an end Saturday at Clemson. Cunningham was forced to miss the contest due to an illness. Prior to Saturday, he had started in every game of his collegiate career.

• UNCG hosts UNCW on Wednesday for its third contest against a Colonial Athletic Association team this season. The Spartans already own wins over the CAA's Delaware and rival Elon.

CONFERENCE NEWS AND NOTES

The Citadel, Chattanooga extremely young

The Citadel and Chattanooga are two of just seven teams in Division I without any seniors on their rosters. The Mocs, in fact, are the youngest team in the nation, with an average age of 19.31 years of age, according to a preseason survey sent to all DI schools.

SoCon on the national level

As a conference, the SoCon finished 16th in the RPI last season, its best showing since finishing 16th in 2006-07.

New faces

Two new head coaches join the league in 2017-18. Bob Richey takes over at Furman after six seasons on the Paladin coaching staff, while Lamont Paris assumes the lead role at Chattanooga after spending the previous seven years as an assistant at Wisconsin.

Returning weapons

• Seven of the 15 All-Southern Conference players from last year return to the league in 2017-18, including first-teamers Devin Sibley of Furman and Fletcher Magee of Wofford.

• Collectively, the league returns 92 letterwinners and 30 starters from last season. Mercer, Samford and Western Carolina each return all five starters, while Furman returns four. Chattanooga is the only team in the league replacing all five starters this year.

Postseason experience

Four teams reached postseason play last season. ETSU won the SoCon Championship and the league's automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, where it fell in the first round to Florida. UNCG made its first NIT appearance since 2002, falling to Syracuse, while Furman and Samford participated in the CollegenInsider.com Tournament, with the Paladins reaching the semifinals.

Sharpshooting Bulldogs

The Citadel led the nation in scoring last season at 89.9 points per game, finishing second in Division I with 397 made 3-pointers, a SoCon record.

Returning statistical leaders

• Furman senior Devin Sibley is the league's active points leader, as he has scored 1,516 points in his career so far. Among players who have been in the league for at least two full seasons, Wofford junior Fletcher Magee owns the best career scoring average at 17.3 points per game.

• The SoCon's active rebound leader is Mercer senior Stephon Jelks, who has pulled down 669 in 107 games. Samford junior Wyatt Walker is second with 531 through 68 games for a league-best 7.8 per-game average for his career.

Double-double machine

Samford's Wyatt Walker turned in a league-best 17 double-doubles in 2016-17. He averaged 12.9 points and 9.7 rebounds per game as a sophomore last season, falling just shy of being the first SoCon player to average a double-double for the year since UNCG's Ben Stywall averaged 14.3 points and 10.4 boards per game in 2009-10. Walker was a third-team all-conference pick last year and was a preseason all-conference selection heading into this season.

Close encounters

Southern Conference teams are 7-4 this season in nonconference games that have been decided by one possession or have gone into overtime. League teams have gone 40-42 in those games since the start of the 2013-14 season.

One-possession games

Southern Conference teams played 90 league games during the 2016-17 regular season. Sixteen games (18 percent) were decided by one possession or went into overtime.

• In 2016, the league had 21 of 90 (23 percent) conference games decided by one possession.

• In 2015, the league had 23 of 90 (26 percent) conference games decided by one possession.

• In 2014, the league had 17 of 88 (19 percent) conference games decided by one possession.

Southern Conference Championship presented by General Shale

The 2018 Southern Conference Men's Basketball Championship presented by General Shale will take place March 2-5 at the U.S. Cellular Center in Asheville, North Carolina.

Preseason predictions

The Mercer Bears were the preseason favorites to win the league in balloting of the SoCon's 10 head coaches, while Furman was the media's pick to win the conference in 2017-18. The Paladins' Devin Sibley, the defending SoCon Player of the Year, was the preseason selection to win that award again in 2017-18.
