GSU's Erk Russell Passes Away

A crowd of 2,000 people at Paulson Stadium paid their final respects to Georgia Southern's legendary coach Erskine 'Erk' Russell. Coach Russell died Friday morning (Sept. 8). He was 80 years old.

Russell, who coached the Eagles to three NCAA Division I-AA National Championships, led the team from 1981-89, after spending 17 years as one of the nation's top defensive coordinators at the University of Georgia.

The legendary coach's final record at Georgia Southern was a remarkable 83-22-1. He never had a losing record during his tenure at Georgia Southern and took the Eagles to the playoffs each of his final five years. Coach Russell saw his Eagles win the 1985, 1986 and 1989 NCAA I-AA National Championship and advance to the title game in 1988.

"The entire Georgia Southern community is deeply shocked and saddened by Erk's passing," said Georgia Southern President Bruce Grube in a statement Friday. "Just yesterday (Thursday), he spent the afternoon with this year's team, giving our young players a moment they will treasure for the rest of their lives," he added.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Russell held bachelor's and master's degrees from Auburn. He played football, basketball, baseball and tennis for the Tigers, earning 10 varsity letters. Russell was the last four-sport letterman in Auburn history.

Starting with Saturday's game the current Eagles' football team wore a sticker on the back of their helmets with Erk's name on it.
