The Southern Conference Men's Golf Championship moves to Greensboro, Georgia, and The Oconee course at Reynolds Lake Oconee in 2020. The tournament will be played there for the first time.

Last season, UNC Greensboro turned in the best round in the championship since 2001 to pull away from the field for its second straight team title at Pinehurst No. 9. ETSU's Shiso Go downed UNCG's Nick Lyerly on the second playoff hole for medalist honors and the SoCon's automatic individual bid to the NCAA Regionals.
