PLAYER OF THE YEAR – JACQUES FRANCOIS, UNCG

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Southern Conference men's soccer regular-season champion UNCG had a league-best seven all-conference selections and saw Jacques Francois named SoCon Player of the Year and Leeroy Maguraushe named Freshman of the Year in voting of the league's six head coaches. VMI's Alex Guerra was named Goalkeeper of the Year and Furman's Doug Allison claimed Coach of the Year honors.

The SoCon's head coaches voted on a pair of all-conference teams, an all-freshman team and the four individual awards. They were not allowed to vote for themselves or their own players. The all-conference first team consists of 11 student-athletes, while the second team and all-freshman team consist of 12 each because of ties in the voting.

The Spartans' Francois leads the league in scoring this season with 26 points on eight goals and a league-leading 10 assists. The senior forward from Port Au Prince, Haiti, has scored at least one point in six of his last seven contests, highlighted by an eight-point day against VMI in which he scored three goals and dished off two assists. Francois, who was the SoCon player of the month for October and player of the week for Nov. 3, has helped the Spartans to their eighth regular-season title and the No. 1 seed in the upcoming Southern Conference Men's Soccer Championship. Francois becomes UNCG's first SoCon Player of the Year since Randi Patterson won the award in 2004 and 2005.

Maguraushe joined Francois on the all-conference first team, as the rookie midfielder is fourth in the league in scoring this season with 18 points on eight goals and two assists. His eight goals are tied with Francois for second in the SoCon. Maguraushe made an immediate impact for the Spartans this season, as the Milton Keynes, England, native scored the game-winning goal in double overtime as UNCG downed Virginia Tech 1-0 in its season opener. Maguraushe scored twice against North Florida and then four times in a three-game span late in the season to help the Spartans lock up the regular-season title. Maguraushe is UNCG's first Freshman of the Year since Matt Smith in 2004.

VMI's Guerra leads the nation in total saves with 127 and saves per game with 6.68 per contest. The senior from Vicenza, Italy, is also the NCAA Division I active leader in career saves per game at 6.00 per match. This season, Guerra posted at least seven saves in 12 matches, highlighted by a season-high 12 in a 2-1 loss to Virginia Tech. Guerra played 1,683 minutes in net for the Keydets this season, facing 424 shots, 206 of which were on goal. He is the first VMI keeper to win the award, which was introduced last season.

Furman's Allison was named Coach of the Year for the seventh time in his career and first since 2007. The Paladin skipper, in his 21st year at the helm, led Furman to a runner-up SoCon finish and the No. 2 seed in the league tournament. Allison has guided Furman to a 7-5-4 overall mark and a 6-2-2 league record this year and has put his team in the SoCon semifinals for the 17th time in his career. With 266 career wins and 107 SoCon wins, Allison is the conference's all-time leader in both categories.
