

R7 Mako Handgun Firing Pin Safety Block Recall

Kimber Mfg. Inc. ("Kimber") has discovered a quality issue involving the firing pin safety block of certain Kimber R7 model handguns shipped from January 10, 2022 through February 14, 2022. Firearms assembled with the subject firing pin safety block may release multiple rounds from a single trigger pull.

This Recall Notice applies only to the Serial Numbers of those products listed on the following webpage: <https://www.kimberamerica.com/serial-r7-mako>. If your handgun is among the Serial Numbers listed on the website, 1, please contact us as described below immediately, and do not load, use, sell, or otherwise make available your handgun, as the condition may lead to serious personal injury or death. Kimber is voluntarily recalling the affected products to help ensure the personal safety of the parties that purchased and/or used them.

If your handgun has a Serial Number that is listed on the website, please contact Kimber immediately to obtain a Return Merchandise Authorization ("RMA") and arrange to have your handgun returned to Kimber for examination and remedial measures as may be necessary, free of charge, using the following steps:

1. Step 1 - Please either: (a) contact us immediately at 888-243-4522 (Monday-Friday 8:30AM - 5PM Central) and indicate you are calling about the "R7 firing pin safety block recall;" or (b) email us at "R7FiringPinSafetyBlockRecall@kimberamerica.com." Either option will enable you to arrange an RMA to return your product(s) to Kimber for examination and remedial work, free of charge. We will pay for the costs of shipping the product(s) to Kimber and returning it to you.
2. Step 2 – After confirming that your product(s) is subject to this recall, we will send you a prepaid shipping label with instructions so that you can return your product to us, free of charge.
3. Step 3 – Kimber will examine your product(s), remediate it, and return it to you (free of charge) after being remediated. Kimber will make every effort to return your product(s) to you in as short a period as possible.

If your product(s) is affected by this recall, and you have already sent it to Kimber, we will examine your product(s), remediate it, and return it to you (free of charge) after being remediated for the issue identified by this recall notice.
