WILD AGAIN engaged for the lead inside rivals at once, maintained a short lead while rated on the pace for six furlongs, resisted gamely when challenged by SLEW O' GOLD around the final turn, brushed repeatedly with that one through the final quarter mile, was severely bumped nearing the finish but held the advantage. GATE DANCER, unhurried for six furlongs, rallied steadily around the final turn, lugged in onto SLEW O' GOLD while challenging through the final furlong, forcing that one hard onto the winner near the end. SLEW O' GOLD, unhurried after the start, moved strongly to contention outside horses leaving the backstretch, brushed repeatedly with the winner through the upper stretch, continued gamely while being severely roughed between rivals in the final sixteenth but could not get up. The stewards lit the inquiry sign and, after reviewing the videotapes of the running, disqualified GATE DANCER for causing severe interference in the final sixteenth and placed him third. TRACK BARRON angled to the outside to rally entering the stretch, pursued an erratic course through the stretch and did not threaten. DESERT WINE lacked a rally when called upon. CANADIAN FACTOR was always far back. PRECISIONIST vied for the early lead outside rivals for six furlongs and tired badly after a mile. MUGATEA lugged out stoutly while vying for the lead into the clubhouse turn and was finished early.
