

German Instructor (m/w/d) with BAMF admission

Join our team of trainers at one of our Berlitz locations and teach on a freelance basis various target groups in integration courses and different business language courses.

international,
dynamic,
professional

Your profile

- You enjoy teaching your language skills and the knowledge of the country, and have an enthusiastic personality.
- You are a native speaker or have language knowledge on a native-speaking level (at least C1).
- You have a BAMF/integration course admission (also by additional, qualifications such as BSK), and/or experience in the fields of medical professionals/health care, technology, hotel business, gastronomy.

What we offer

- High volume of jobs and a long-term cooperation – short-term jobs are possible, if you like to fill in spontaneous gaps in your own planning.
- Variable scope of lessons – acquisition of complete courses or single course dates possible.
- Your focus is on teaching. Our center team supports you in administrative tasks.
- An open, friendly, and international atmosphere and Berlitz as well known brand and solvent, professional client.
- An optional offer of pedagogical support. Benefit from topic-related free of charge inhouse workshops, if desired (e.g. Berlitz method).
- Nationwide, Berlitz can be found in around 50 locations. This offers you many options for virtual courses, besides on-site courses in your basis center.

Berlitz®

Please send your application via Email to the Berlitz center of your choice! You can find the contact details on our job vacancy page.

www.berlitz.de/karriere