US Extended Hours Notification

NYSE and Nasdaq are planning to move to 23-hour trading sessions (9:00 p.m. ET to 8:00 p.m. ET the next day), beginning Sunday, December 6, 2026. This will not affect the calculation of Morningstar equity indexes.

For the avoidance of doubt, Morningstar equity indexes will continue to capture opening prices for U.S. stocks at 9:30 a.m. ET and closing prices at 4:00 p.m. ET. Where intraday index values are disseminated, U.S. constituent prices will continue to be updated based on market ticks between 9:30 a.m. ET and 4:00 p.m. ET.

About Morningstar Indexes

Morningstar Indexes was built to keep up with the evolving needs of investors—and to be a leading-edge advocate for them. Our rich heritage as a transparent, investor-focused leader in data and research uniquely equips us to support individuals, institutions, wealth managers and advisors in navigating investment opportunities across major asset classes, styles and strategies. In February 2026, the acquisition of CRSP brought the CRSP Market Indexes—benchmarks for over $3 trillion in AUM—into the Morningstar Indexes family. Additionally, CRSP's Research Data Products, renowned for their academic rigor, historical depth and accuracy, will further enhance Morningstar's equity research and data capabilities. This integration unites two trusted sources of market insight, reinforcing a shared commitment to transparency, quality, and investor-focused solutions.
