How to obtain a Student Visa

According to U.S. immigration laws, you must enter the United States on a non-immigrant, student (F-1) visa if you wish to study more than 18 hours per week. Berlitz Study Abroad Centers are authorized, under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. To obtain an F-1 student visa and make an appointment at U.S. Embassy for a personal interview, you will need to pay a SEVIS Fee (NOT a Berlitz Fee) at www.FMJfee.com. You must print the receipt and present it to the U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate along with certain documents to demonstrate your intent to study in the United States and, after completion of your studies, return to your home country. The documents you need: Form I-20 obtained from Berlitz; proof of financial certification; a valid passport; and evidence of ties to your country. We recommend that you make an appointment for your interview at least 60-120 days before the date you intend to begin your studies. You can find more guidance on the process and requirements at the Department of Homeland Security's "Study in the States" page here <http://studyinthestates.dhs.gov/>
