

Teamfight Tactics (“TFT”)

Global Player Policy

I. Introduction

A. This Global Player Policy applies to players and tournament organizers and provides baseline governance for all sanctioned Teamfight Tactics (“TFT”) competitions (i.e., Riot-ran Competitions, Medium and Major Community Competitions). This Global Player Policy focuses on player conduct, player eligibility, and our general expectations for good sportsmanship. Tournament organizers may establish tournament-specific rules (e.g., competition formats, prize awards) to supplement this Global Player Policy.

II. Applicability of Policy

- A. The terms contained in this Global Player Policy apply to TFT Competitions in all regions.
- B. Participation in any TFT competition is subject to this Global Player Policy, our Legal Jibber Jabber, our TFT Community Guidelines, and our Terms of Service.
- C. Failure to adhere to this Global Player Policy is subject to game or match forfeitures, disqualifications from competitions, prize forfeitures, and other disciplinary action.
- D. This English language version of this Global Player Policy will supersede any translation.
- E. Riot reserves the right in its sole discretion and at any time to update or modify this Global Player Policy.

III. Player Eligibility

- A. Players may not participate in any competition if doing so would violate local law.
- B. Residency
 - 1. Some TFT tournaments may require participants to be residents of a specific region. To be eligible to compete in a given region, the player must qualify as a legal resident in one of the listed countries or territories in the region for at least one year prior to the tournament date.

2. Players may not be the resident of two or more regions at the same time. Any player who relocates to a new region, will remain a resident of his or her prior region until the one-year anniversary of their relocation.
3. Riot Games recognizes the following twelve (12) competitive geographic “regions”, and Riot Games defines residency as follows:

a) North America

k) China

The China region consists of the following countries and territories:

a. China

l) Japan

The Japan region consists of the following countries and territories:

- a. Japan
- m) Other countries or territories
 - (1) Any player who is a resident of a country or territory not otherwise listed above, should contact the nearest regional Riot office for guidance, prior to registering for a competition.
- 4. Joint Regions
 - a) Some competitions may combine multiple regions into a single pan-region. In those competitions, a player must qualify as an eligible participant in one of the constituent regions to participate.
- 5. Riot reserves the right to add, modify or remove competitive regions, or to change a player's eligible competitive region at Riot's sole discretion at any time.
- 6. Proof of Residency
 - a) Riot may require a player to provide proof of residency prior to, during or following a competitive tournament. Players may prove residency by submitting Government-issued documentary evidence of eligibility to their regional Riot office (e.g., driver's license, government benefits records, military/draft registration papers).
 - (1) Minors may also have a parent or guardian prove residency on their behalf by first, providing documentary evidence of the parent-/guardian-child relationship (e.g., a birth certificate) and second, submitting documentary evidence belonging to the parent/guardian, as outlined above.
 - b) Riot may, at its discretion, establish additional or alternative regional processes for proving residency.

C. Minimum Age

- 1. The minimum age to participate in TFT competition is determined at the regional level and subject to BOTH of the following:
 - a) The minimum age to participate may not be younger than 13 years of age; AND
 - b) The minimum age to participate may not be younger than the Game Rating requisite age for TFT in that region.
- 2. All players who are younger than the age of majority in their region must receive parental permission to participate in a TFT competition.

D. Ineligible Players.

1. Competition participants may not be employees of Riot Games, Inc. (“RGI”) or any of their respective affiliates at the start of or at any point during a TFT competition.
2. In addition, for a competition administered by a third party; directors, officers and employees of the entity operating the competition, its parent, and any of their respective affiliate companies, subsidiaries, agents, professional advisors, advertising and promotional agencies, and immediate family and household members of each are not eligible to participate in any competitions, win any prizes, or to have any share or interest of any competition player’s prize.
3. Players who are subject to an active competitive ban in any Riot esports are not eligible to compete in sanctioned TFT competitions.

E. Additional Rules.

1. Some competitions may set additional requirements for eligibility. In such cases, those rules shall govern eligibility for that specific competition. In the event there is any conflict or inconsistency between the additional requirements and the requirements in this Global Player Policy, the provisions of this Global Player Policy shall prevail.

IV. Player Accounts

- A. A player must only use one account during a competition.
- B. Account names should not include any insulting, derogatory or otherwise inappropriate words or phrases.
- C. If two players with identical account names are entering the same competition at approximately the same time, then the players should work together with the competition organizer to find a compromise. If no compromise can be found, then the account name shall be disallowed for both players, and both shall be required to select a new account name that conforms with these guidelines.
- D. Riot reserves the right to deny or revoke the use of an account name for any reason.

V. Sponsorships

- A. Participants may sign sponsorship deals with brands and companies, and represent those sponsors while participating in TFT competitions as long as they are otherwise in compliance with the rules and restrictions set forth in this section..

 - a) An intentional disconnection without a proper and explicitly-stated reason.
12. Unsportsmanlike Conduct

- a) Any other further act, failure to act, or behavior which undermines the competitive integrity of the competition or otherwise violates this Global Player Policy and/or the standards of integrity established by Riot for competitive game play.

D. Unprofessional Behavior

1. Hostility

a) Profanity and Hate Speech

(1) A player may not use language that is obscene, foul, vulgar, insulting, threatening, abusive, libelous, slanderous, defamatory or otherwise offensive or objectionable; or promote or incite hatred or discriminatory conduct, in or near the match area, at any time. A player may not use any facilities, services or equipment provided or made available by Riot or its contractors to post, transmit, disseminate or otherwise make available any such prohibited communications.

b) Disruptive Behavior / Insults

(1) A player may not take any action or perform any gesture directed at an opposing player, fan, or official, or incite any other individual(s) to do the same, which is insulting, mocking, disruptive, or antagonistic.

c) Abusive Behavior

(1) Abuse of Riot officials, opposing players, or audience members will not be tolerated. Repeated etiquette violations, including but not limited to touching another player's computer, body or property will result in penalties. Players and their guests (if any) must treat all individuals attending a match with respect.

d) Harassment

(1) Harassment is forbidden. Harassment is defined as systematic, hostile and repeated acts taking place over a considerable period of time, or a singular egregious instance, which is/are intended to isolate or ostracize a person and/or affect the dignity of the person.

e) Sexual Harassment

- (1) Sexual harassment is forbidden. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances. The assessment is based on whether a reasonable person would regard the conduct as undesirable or offensive. There is zero tolerance for any sexual threats/coercion or the promise of advantages in exchange for sexual favors.
 - f) Discrimination and Denigration
 - (1) Players may not offend the dignity or integrity of a country, private person or group of people through contemptuous, discriminatory or denigrating words or actions on account of race, skin color, ethnic, national or social origin, gender, language, religion, political opinion or any other opinion, financial status, birth or any other status, sexual orientation or any other reason.
 - g) Disparaging Remarks
 - (1) Players may not give, make, issue, authorize or endorse any statement designed to undermine the perception of a competition or competition officials, or have any other effect prejudicial or detrimental to the best interest of Riot Games or its affiliates, or TFT, as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of Riot.
 - h) Criminal Activity
 - (1) A player may not engage in any activity which is prohibited by common law, statute, or treaty and which leads to or may be reasonably deemed likely to lead to conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction.
 - i) Moral Turpitude
 - (1) A player may not engage in any activity which is deemed by Riot to be immoral, disgraceful, or contrary to conventional standards of proper ethical behavior.
2. Operational Misconduct lights, cameras or other studio equipment. Players may not stand on chairs, tables or other studio equipment. Players must follow all instructions of Riot studio personnel.

b) Unauthorized Communications

(1) For live events, all mobile phones, tablets and other voice-enabled and/or “ringing” electronic devices must be removed from the play area before the game. Players may not text/email or use social media while in the match area.

c) Identity Concealment

(1) A player may not attempt to conceal his or her identity from Riot officials. Riot officials may instruct players to remove any material that inhibits the identification of players or is a distraction to other players or Riot officials.

d) Confidentiality

(1) A player may not disclose any confidential information provided by Riot or any affiliate of Riot Games, by any method of communication, including all social media channels.

e) Non-Compliance

(1) No player may refuse or fail to apply the instructions or decisions of Riot officials.

f) Document or Miscellaneous Requests

(1) Documentation or other reasonable items may be required at various times throughout a competition as requested by Riot officials. If the documentation is not completed to the standards set by Riot then a player may be subject to penalties. Penalties may be imposed if the items or documentation requested are not received and/or completed at the required time or does not meet the standards set by Riot.

VII. Subjection to Penalty and Investigation

A. Violations

1. If Riot determines that a player has violated this Global Player Policy, the TFT Community Guidelines, the Terms of Service, or other rules of TFT, Riot may issue competitive penalties as set forth below. If a Riot official contacts a player to discuss the investigation, the player is obligated to tell the truth. If a player withholds information or misleads a Riot official, creating an obstruction of the investigation then the player is subject to punishment.

B. Penalties

1. Upon discovery of any Player committing any violations of the rules listed above, Riot may issue the following penalties:

 - d) Match Forfeiture(s)
 - e) Suspension(s)
 - f) Disqualification(s)
 - g) Any combination of the above
2. Standard penalties are set forth in the Global Penalty Index. Riot reserves the right to modify or exceed the penalties set forth in the GPI in its sole discretion. For an English version of the Global Penalty Index, see this link.

C. Right to Publish

1. Riot has the right to publish a declaration stating that a player has been penalized and to maintain a public record of suspended players.

VIII. Spirit of the Rules

A. Finality of Decisions

1. Unless expressly prohibited under regional law, all decisions regarding the interpretation of these rules, player eligibility, and penalties for misconduct, lie solely with Riot, the decisions of which are final. Riot decisions with respect to this Global Player Policy cannot be appealed and shall not give rise to any claim for monetary damages or any other legal or equitable remedy.

B. Rule Changes

1. This Global Player Policy may be amended, modified or supplemented by Riot, from time to time, in order to ensure fair play and the integrity of TFT competition.

C. Best Interests of Riot Games

1. Riot officials at all times may act with the necessary authority to preserve the best interests of the Riot Games. This power is not constrained by the lack of any specific language in this document. Riot officials may use any form of punitive actions at their disposal against any entity whose conduct is not within the confines of the best interests of Riot Games.

TFT Rising Legends - EMEA Tournament Series Rules and Regulations

All Riot Games Global Player Policy rules apply to the Teamfight Tactics Rising Legends - Gizmos and Gadgets EMEA Tournament Series, as well as the additional rules and regulations set out below. The English language version of these rules supersedes any other translations.

I. Eligibility

A. Eligible Regions

1. The regions eligible to compete in the Teamfight Tactics Rising Legends - Gizmos and Gadgets EMEA Tournament Series are: Europe, CIS, MENA&I, and Turkey.
2. Riot Games reserves the right to ask for Proof of Residence or Proof of Age at any time.
3. A player must be a resident of one of the eligible regions.
4. Residents of the EUW and EUNE servers MUST play in one of those two servers.
5. Residents of the RU or TR regions may play in the server of the region they are a resident of, or in the EUW or EUNE servers.
6. Residents of the MENA&I region may play on the EUW server.

B. Open Qualifiers

1. Players must be signed up to the tournament platform on the tournament website to be eligible to play in an Open Qualifier event.
2. Players must be at least Diamond II to sign up for Open Qualifiers.
3. Players qualified for the Golden Spatula Cup through ladder (See Section III-C-2) are ineligible to participate in the Open Qualifier for said Golden Spatula Cup.
 - a) Example: Player A is #5 in EUW on the ladder on the GSC Cutoff Date, hence, already qualified for the Golden Spatula Cup, and therefore cannot play in the Open Qualifier. Player B is #102 on the relevant Ladder Snapshot, and will therefore have time to sign up for the Open Qualifier before sign ups close.

4. Open Qualifiers will be played on the EUW server, players whose accounts are not on EUW must make a new EUW account to play on for these events.

C. Defining your Region

1. On signing up for the website and tournament platform, a player must declare/define what server they are playing on for the purposes of the Ladder Snapshots by signing up with their Riot ID.
2. Residents of the EUW and EUNE servers MUST play in one of those two server regions.
3. Residents of the RU or TR servers may play in the server of the region they are a resident of, or in the EUW or EUNE servers.
4. This server cannot be changed for the duration of the Tournament Series.

D. Ladder Snapshots

1. Players can only be eligible to qualify through Ladder Snapshots in one region.
2. A player can only play in one region for ladder snapshots. Players who play in multiple regions must declare to Riot through the tournament platform what region they wish to be eligible for qualification through.
3. Players who are found to be entering into ladder snapshots in both regions, and to have not declared this, the players snapshots will be taken in the region they are eligible for.
4. Players must have played at least 10 games in the week to be included in the ladder snapshot.

E. TFT EMEA Superbrawl

1. The Superbrawl qualification tournaments will be run regionally and separate from the TFT Rising Legends EMEA Tournament Series. Specific rules and eligibility will be released for them on their own local channels.

F. Golden Spatula Cups

1. Players must be signed up to the tournament platform on the tournament website one week before the start date to be eligible to play in a Golden Spatula Cup.

II. Tournament Communication

- A. For day-to-day official tournament communications, information, and questions, an official Discord Server will be shared with players.
- B. Official announcements, updates, and information will also be posted on our website [\[here\]](#).

III. Competition Format

A. Ladder Snapshot

1. Ladder snapshots will be taken at 23:59:59 UTC+2 on Tuesdays.
2. The first Ladder snapshot will be on November 16, 23:59:59 UTC+2 (week 2 of Set 6).
3. Players must have played 10 ranked ladder games on their defined server in between each snapshot to be eligible for the next one.
4. Points will be awarded for the Top 100 players of each region, starting with 100 points for rank 1, down to 1 point for rank 100. The lowest snapshot of Set 6 will be dropped at the end of the set for each player.
5. Ladder snapshot points are based on rank and LP at the time of the snapshot. Any necessary tiebreakers will be based on Win percentage followed by Top 4 percentage.
 - a) A total of 11 ladder snapshots will be taken on the following dates:

F. Competition Schedules

1. Competition Schedules will be shared in the Tournament Discord and Website at least 1 week before the tournament start date.

G. Rules of Succession

1. Golden Spatula Cup Qualification
 - a) Ladder spot takes precedence over open qualifiers, players qualified for the Golden Spatula Cup through ladder will be removed from sign ups for open qualifier.
2. EMEA Finals Qualification
 - a) TFT EMEA Superbrawl win takes precedence over Golden Spatula Cups and ladder qualification. If a player is qualified for the EMEA Finals through both winning the EMEA Superbrawl, and another method, they will be removed from contention from the other method.
 - b) Golden Spatula Cup points take precedence over ladder qualification. If a player is qualified for the EMEA Finals through both ladder points and Golden Spatula Cup points, they will be removed from the ladder leaderboard for the purposes of qualification. Everyone on the ladder below the qualified player will then count as one position higher for qualification.
 - c) If the same player wins 2 or 3 Golden Spatula Cups:
 - (1) Rules of Succession - The 2nd place Player from their 2nd win will qualify in their place.
 - (a) Extends to 2nd place Player from their 3rd win in case of 3rd win.

IV. Rules and Regulations

A. Disconnects

1. Players are responsible for their own internet connection. A remake can be considered in one of the following situations at an admin's discretion, a remake is not guaranteed in either:
 - a) Players disconnect during the first carousel and are unable to select an item.
 - b) Live server issues that cause multiple players to be unable to play the game.
2. All players are required to remain for the duration of any broadcasted matches they have started. If a player preemptively leaves a match after losing they must tell an admin and wait for approval to leave.

B. Game Bugs

1. A player playing in the Teamfight Tactics Rising Legends EMEA Tournament Series will not knowingly use any bugs to gain a competitive advantage. In the event that this happens, disciplinary action will be taken at an Admin's discretion.

C. Pauses

1. In any tournament played on the Tournament Realm (Golden Spatula Cups, Superbrawl, and EMEA Finals) can be paused at an admin's discretion. If a player needs to get in contact with an admin, the player can pause the game by typing "/pause". In certain cases an admin may reach out to a player through the in-game client to initiate a pause. Abuse of the pause feature will result in disciplinary action.

D. Unsportsmanlike Conduct

1. Players must follow the guidelines for sportsmanship and professional conduct set out in the Global Player Policy. Any violation of these guidelines will result in disciplinary action.

E. Disciplinary action

1. If a player has been found in violation of Riot's Global Player Policy or any of the rules above, the Admin reserves the right to issue any disciplinary action based on the severity of the action. This action could include but is not limited to: Warnings, Game Forfeits, Loss of Points, Disqualification, Prize Forfeiture. This action is solely at the discretion of the administration team.

F. No Shows

1. Open Qualifiers
 - a) If a player fails to check in for their game in the first round of the Open Qualifiers, their spot will be offered to a player from 513th rank down.
 - b) If a player fails to show up for their game in the second round onwards, an admin will join the lobby, and not play anything after the first shared draft. They will then concede as soon as possible.
 - c) If option 2 is unfeasible for whatever reason, the game will be started with a random player from the matchmaking pool.
2. Spatula Cup, Superbrawl, and EMEA Finals.
 - a) If a player fails to show up for their game an admin will join the lobby, and not play anything after the first shared draft. They will then concede as soon as possible.

G. POV Streaming

1. Players are free to stream their own POV of any games they play in the Teamfight Tactics Rising Legends EMEA Tournament series.
 - a) Any sponsors must comply with the rules set out in the Global Player Policy.

- b) We recommend setting a delay on your stream, however this is entirely left to the discretion of the individual.

H. Rule Changes

1. These Rules and Regulations may be amended, modified or supplemented by Riot, from time to time, in order to ensure fair play and the integrity of TFT competition, and to ensure that player voices and feedback are heard.
