

Setting up your Emergency Guide

Print and fill out this guide to help keep your guests safer while they travel. We recommend putting it in an easy-to-find place like your fridge or with your house manual.

This address

What is the complete address of your listing, in case it needs to be shared with emergency responders?

Telephone numbers

What are the best numbers to call for help in an emergency?

Nearest hospital or medical center

What's the name and address of the emergency medical center nearest to your home?

Fire extinguisher

Do you have a fire extinguisher? If so, where can guests find it in case of emergency?

First Aid Kit

Do you have a fully-stocked first aid kit readily available in your place? If so, where can guests find it in case of emergency?

Location of gas shut-off valve

Do you have a gas shut-off valve? If so, where can guest find it in case of emergency?

Emergency evacuation plan

How can a guest exit your home and where should they go in the event of an emergency?