HOLIDAY INN CLUB VACATIONS BRAND BREAKS GROUND ON EXPANSION TO WILLIAMSBURG RESORT

ORLANDO, FLA. (October 1, 2018) – Orange Lake Resorts, home to the Holiday Inn Club Vacations® brand, has begun construction of a new four-story building at its Holiday Inn Club Vacations Williamsburg Resort that will expand the resort to 114 villas. The new building will feature 24 spacious two- and three-bedroom villas, including six Signature Collection Reserve villas that feature luxury accommodations meticulously designed to deliver a superior vacation experience. Henderson Incorporated was selected as the construction manager, and the project is expected to be completed by summer 2019.

“Williamsburg is a top vacation destination for families, and our owners love the resort,” said Tom Nelson, President and CEO of Orange Lake Resorts. “Expanding our resorts to meet demand is pivotal to our growth strategy. This new building also features six of our luxury-level villas, expanding our popular Signature Collection Reserve offerings at the resort.”

The resorts of Holiday Inn Club Vacations feature larger accommodations that include full kitchens, fun-filled amenities and great vacation destinations. In all, 20 two-bedroom, 1,300-square-foot villas and four three-bedroom, 1,700-square-foot villas will be constructed at Williamsburg Resort. Five two-bedroom villas and one three-bedroom villa will receive Signature Collection Reserve decor.
