The mechanism of commission-free trades is pre-deducted and rebated afterward. After collecting the commission-free trades and completing a new order, the order will be marked as "Waiving" and the waived portion will be refunded to your Tiger account in the form of a cash rebate within the first business week of the following month. At that time, the "Waiving" mark will be updated to "Waived" for that order.

Where can I view the "waived" cashback details for commission-free trades?

You may go to 【Tiger Trade App > Trade > Order】 or 【Tiger Trade App > Trade > More > Statement】 to view the cashback details. The commission exempted by the commission-free trade is capped at USD15 or equivalent in other currencies.

The single and multiple commission-free trades are effective within the validity period and the specified number of times.
