

Complimentary SGX Enhanced Market Depth has been extended to help you better capitalise on opportunities in the Singapore market!

Due to overwhelming requests, we are happy to share that the complimentary SGX Enhanced Market Depth promotion has been extended for 3 more months! From now to 30 June 2022, all POEMS clients are eligible to enjoy Complimentary SGX Enhanced Market Depth Access on the POEMS suite of trading platforms!

What is SGX Market Depth?

SGX Market Depth, also known as Level 2 Market Data, displays the number of Buy and Sell orders of each price level of a particular listed security (e.g. Stocks or ETFs), up to 20 levels of pending orders on both Buy and Sell side. In simple terms, it shows the different price levels which buyers are willing to buy and sellers are willing to sell at any given time.

SGX Market Depth is in real time and the orders shown change constantly from pre-open session till market close. SGX Market Depth information allows you to enhance trading decisions by checking stock liquidity, optimising buy / sell orders, and establishing price support / resistance.

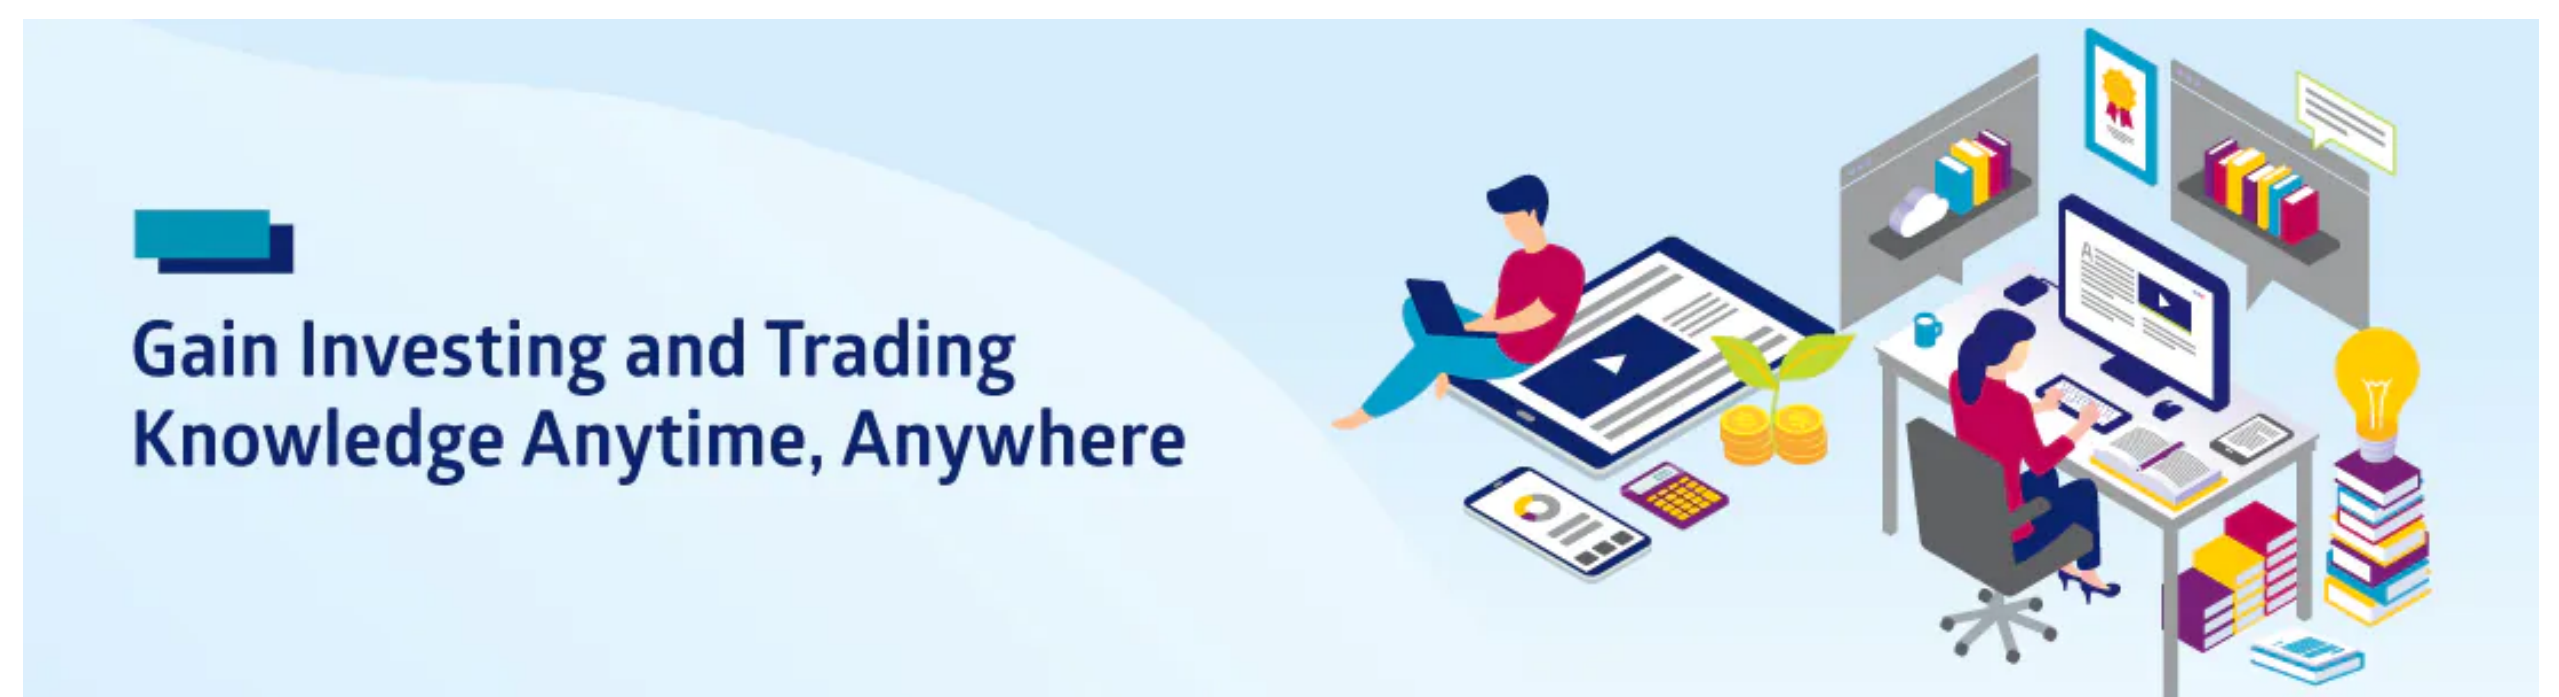

SGX Enhanced Market Depth on the POEMS Suite of Trading Platforms

Did you know that Phillip Securities is the first broker to offer SGX Enhanced Market Depth

With 2 additional columns (Ords) to SGX Market Depth on the POEMS suite of trading platforms, you can now determine, from your order book, whether the market action is being driven by retail investors or institutions. Orders denote the number of Buy or Sell orders that have totaled up the volume at each price level.

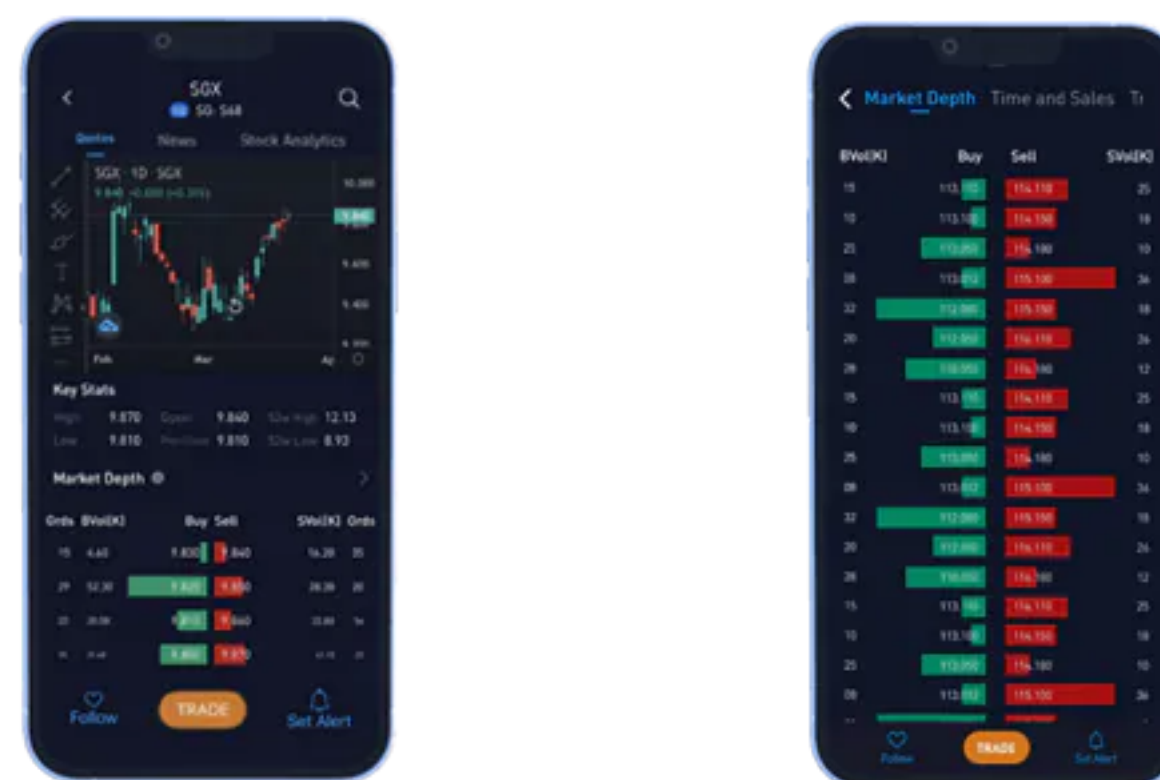

For a limited time only, you will get to enjoy complimentary SGX Enhanced Market Depth Access on the POEMS suite of trading platforms (POEMS 2.0, POEMS Mobile 2.0, POEMS Mobile 3 and POEMS Pro). No subscription is required!
